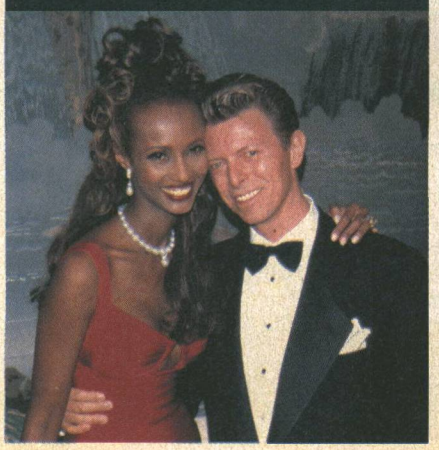
A WHOLE day is devoted to David Bowie on VH1 this month, featuring footage of his sensational 1997 concert, David Bowie & Friends. But Madonna gets an entire week. Every night from 9.00pm, the channel examines the impact the Material Girl has had on the style and sound of the Eighties and Nineties, and features Madonna Rising, a documentary in which Rupert Everett visits some of her New York haunts. We also see footage from the Barcelona gig on the 1990 Blonde Ambition tour, which is when Ms Ciccone unveiled her conical bra, and Ciao Italia, an early concert performed in 1987, in Milan. And in Madonna Throughout the Ages, Pip Dann looks at Madonna's many shifts of image and musical direction. VH1, Madonnarama, from Monday 7th; David Bowie Day, Thursday 3rd



Tony Bennett might have left his heart in San Francisco, but in America's heart the seventysomething crooner has a special place – indeed he was invited to sing America the Beautiful before the opening game of this year's baseball World Series. Bennett also tells me that he has sung before six US Presidents, of whom his favourite is Clinton. 'I love him,' he gushes. 'He is a tremendous person.' Bennett sang for Bill and Hillary while they waited for the 1996 presidential election results, and marvels at how Anthony Dominick Benedetto, the son of a grocer from Queens, came to hold the ear of presidents.

His original stage name was Joe Bari, but in 1949 it was reinvented by Bob Hope. 'It was very strange,' Bennett recalls. 'Hope had asked me to join his show at the Paramount Theatre in New York, and didn't like the name Joe Bari, so he just announced me as Tony Bennett, without telling me. But I went down so well that night I kept the name.' Anthony Dominick Benedetto, however, lives on as the signature on Bennett's highly rated paintings. 'I was thrilled recently when Steve Wynn, who owns hotels in Las Vegas and is a big art collector in the world, bought two for $40,000 each,' says Bennett. But which gives him more pleasure, completing an album or a painting? 'I'd say painting,' he says. 'There are no board meetings, you're on your own.' Nevertheless, it is still the voice for which Bennett is best known, and which thrilled Glastonbury Festival goers this year. Meanwhile, Columbia Records have just marked his 50th year in show business with a new album, The Essential Tony Bennett, which coincides with a biography, The Good Life. And the book is well-named in more ways than one, for Bennett lives in a sumptuous apartment overlooking Central Park, and of course is feted like royalty whenever he goes to San Francisco. He first recorded his signature song in 1962, and its admirers included Frank Sinatra, who said in the Sixties that Bennett was his favourite entertainer. 'That changed my life,' Bennett recalls. 'Because his fans were inquisitive and they came to listen to me, and I have never looked back.' Unsurprisingly, he has only good things to say about the late Francis Albert Sinatra. 'He was warm and generous and, people don't know this, but also very intellectual.' UK Arena screens Tony Bennett at Glastonbury as part of Christmas with the Crooners, which also features Frank Sinatra, Barry White and Burt Bacharach.

THE AMERICAN Film Institute's controversial list of the 100 best American films of all time is presented by Jodie Foster and Richard Gere. Published to celebrate 100 years of American cinema, the list's top five are Citizen Kane, Casablanca, The Godfather, Gone with the Wind and Lawrence of Arabia, which seems reasonable. The Wizard of Oz, The Graduate, On the Waterfront, Schindler's List and Singin' in the Rain complete the top 10, six of which won Best Picture Oscars. However, publication of the list – based on the selections of more than 1500 people in the industry – caused a stir among film buffs. How could Spielberg's ET (25th) be over 50 places higher than Chaplin's Modern Times (81st)? And what about the interminable Dances with Wolves (75th) placed higher than Fargo (84th)? Still, the purpose of lists is to provoke debate, and this one does as much for what it excludes as for what it contains. There are no Buster Keaton or Greta Garbo films. There are also more films by Spielberg (five) than by Hitchcock (four), which seems open to argument, but as I say, that is what lists are for. AFI's 100 Years, Sky Cinema, Sunday 27th, 1.45pm

WHEN he finishes making a film, Anthony Hopkins winds down by driving alone across America. In The Barry Norman Interview with Anthony Hopkins, the Oscar-winning actor reveals that he jumps in the car with no route in mind and stays in motels. This year he drove from LA to Florida, and stopped at a motel in the Texas town of El Paso. The receptionist glanced up at him, and did a double-take. 'Oh my Gaaaad,' she exclaimed. 'It's Hannibal Lecter!' Hopkins tells Norman that, contrary to rumours, there are currently no plans to make a follow-up to The Silence of the Lambs, citing The Godfather II as one of the rare successful sequels. However, he is still working flat out, and discusses his new film The Mask of Zorro, as well as the forthcoming Meet Joe Black, in which he plays a tycoon with heart disease and Brad Pitt plays Death. The pair also discuss Hopkins' past as one of the angriest young actors. His anger derived from fear of failure. 'Fear is the rocket fuel you need when you're a young actor. Peter O'Toole had it too,' he says, and he recalls seeing O'Toole in Look Back in Anger at Bristol Old Vic in 1957. 'It was terrifying. You thought he was going to jump off the stage and hit you.' Sky Premier, Thursday 10th, 9.45pm

BY THE time more than 10 million people tuned in to watch the final episode of Pride and Prejudice in October 1995, the BBC knew that it had the most successful costume drama in television history. The video, which went on sale at £19.99 while the serial was still running, sold more than 50,000 copies in a week, and more than 350,000 in less than six months, smashing a record previously held by the Seventies bodice-ripper Poldark. The drama even rekindled interest in a 15-year-old version of Pride and Prejudice ... sales of that video shot up to 33,000. As for the sets, the Wiltshire village of Lacock, where most of the exteriors were filmed, was swamped with visitors. And both Lynne Hall in Cheshire and Belton House in Lincolnshire, were similarly overrun. In October 1994, 800 people a week visited Lynne Hall. A year later, the weekly tally was over 5,000, and a guide recalls being accosted by two genteel women asking 'where Mr Darcy took his dip'. As for Colin Firth's famously wet shirt, it was sold at a Children in Need auction for £500. Some even remembered that the whole business started with a book. Nearly 200 years after Cadell, a London publisher, turned down Jane Austen's novel, the TV drama propelled Pride and Prejudice to the top of the paperback bestseller lists. UK Gold, Weekdays from Friday 25th

Ready, willing and Sable

Meet Sable: she's blonde, she's beautiful and, dressed in Santa's coat, looks like butter wouldn't melt. But in the wrestling ring she's a whip-cracking, awe-inspiring leather-clad diva. Words: Clare Devane. Photo: Justine Bohan

STYLIST: ANNY CHETTLEBOROUGH. SANTA JACKET: ANGELS

WRESTLING icon Sable gets into the festive spirit for Cable Guide by donning Santa's coat – a far cry from her usual attire in the ring, where she strides forth as a whip-cracking, leather-clad combatant. The 31-year-old blonde bombshell was born in Jacksonville in Florida. Before entering the wrestling arena, she made her mark as a successful model with names like Guess Jeans and Pepsi under her shapely belt. But then she changed tack and became a wrestling manager and a wrestler, too. A natural daredevil, Sable's hobbies include kick boxing, jet skiing, motorbikes and tae kwon do (she's a black belt), so the wrestling ring is the perfect stage for her talents.

In the testosterone-dominated world of wrestling, Sable represents Girl Power in a much more literal way than the Spice Girls. Dressed in kinky thigh-high boots, rock-chick fantasy gear and with her signature honey-blonde mane, she provides a jaw-dropping contrast to wrestling's angry man-mountains.

It's hard to believe that Sable entered the World Wrestling Federation as the shy, innocent valet (and love interest) of bully-beef wrestler Marc Mero. In the beginning she was a mere spectator clutching onto his arm. But the turning point came in 1997 when an injury to his knee kept Mero out of the action. It was then that Sable took to wearing her leather outfits and seized control of the stage, drawing scores of adoring fans. On his return, Mero was overcome by jealousy, which prompted the now feisty Sable to dump him. In retaliation Mero hired another female associate, Jacqueline, the WWF's current Ladies Champion.

Which brings us to Capital Carnage – an all-star wrestling bill featuring, you guessed it – Sable v Jacqueline. All in all, the evening looks set to be one of pure theatre with lashings of hate and spite – the stuff on which wrestling thrives.

The event transmits live on Sky Box Office from the now sold-out London Arena. Brought to you by The World Wrestling Federation, Capital Carnage features a line up of the world's wrestling superstars, including Stonecold Steve Austin, The Rock, Blackpool's Steven Regal and Ken Shamrock – as well, of course, as the Sable v Jacqueline bout, the winner of which will be crowned WWF Ladies Champion.

WATCH OUT!

● January's a good month for old favourites. New series of Home Improvement, Boy Meets World and Honey, I Shrunk the Kids start on Disney Channel next month.

● Also returning in January, on Sky One, is Kirstie Alley's comedy series Veronica's Closet, the much-awaited new series of Friends and a new series of 3rd Rock from the Sun.

● Spice Girls watch out! Girl power comes to the Cartoon Network next month in the form of The Powerpuff Girls – a new animated series about the adventures of three sugar-coated superheroines called Blossom, Bubbles and Buttercup.

● George Clooney hangs up his stethoscope in the new series of ER, which starts on Sky One next month. So far, there's no news on how Dr Ross bows out, though we're assured he won't be killed off.

● Good news, though, for fans of George's ER co-star Anthony Edwards (Dr Mark Greene). He has signed up for four more years on the show and is also reported to be starring in a new British romantic comedy with Linford Christie.

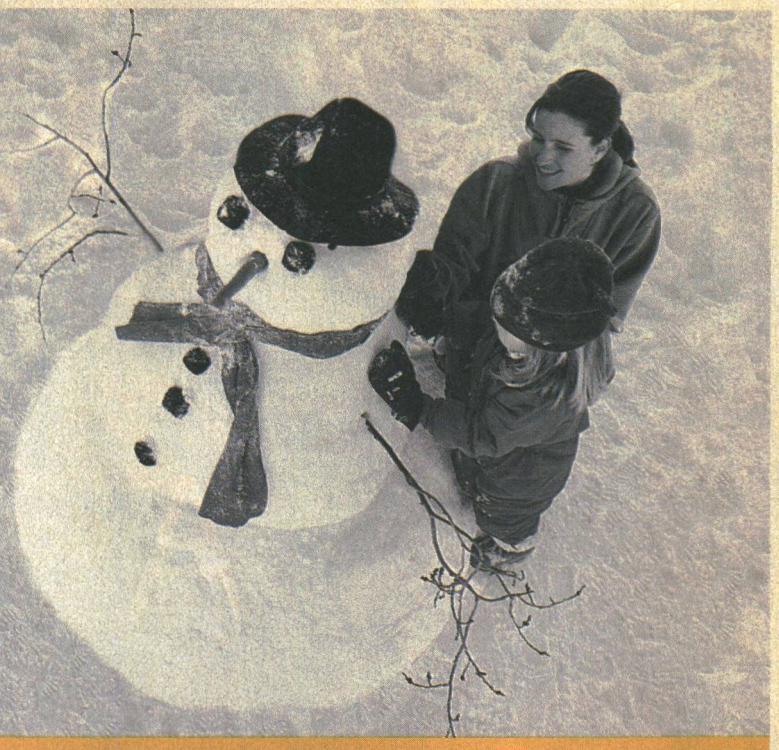
A sneak preview of what's coming to cable

There are more important things in life than working out how much a 25% discount on a five minute call to Lapland will save you.



So let's simplify things.

1. We promise you'll save money on your phone bill compared to BT. Or we'll give you back double the difference.

It's as simple as that. Switch your telephone service to Cable & Wireless and we promise we'll save you money compared to BT (even if you've got Friends & Family and any of their other discount schemes), or we'll give you back double the difference.* So you needn't be bothered with working out the best deal, because we'll do it for you.

2. All it takes is one free phone call.

To start saving money, all you need to do is make one free call today on the number below. You'll get at least 100 minutes worth of free local evening calls every single month.* And you won't even need to change your phone number.† So you can concentrate on something a little more serious.

Vocal heroes

Disney's new animated series Hercules promises to be a big hit, with Hollywood's star names providing the voices. Words: Pauline McLeod

Disney Channel

Hercules: Daily, from Monday 21st 8.30am, 4.10pm

NEW SERIES

ANIMATION voice-over work is just about the hippest form of acting in the US right now. With hit series such as The Simpsons, King of the Hill and South Park at the top of the ratings, actors are queueing up to get on the cast lists and earn street cred.

But outdoing them all is Disney Channel's Hercules, a 65-part series that has over 160 celebrity guest voices. Hercules himself is played by 34-year-old Tate Donovan, who reprises his film role.

In the series he plays a younger Hercules than in the film – the show is set in the formative, hero-in-training, high school years.

Among the guests joining Tate are former girlfriend Jennifer Aniston, Lisa Kudrow, Tom Arnold, super-cool Vince Vaughn, Linda Hamilton, Eric Idle, Jennifer Jason Leigh, William Shatner and Tate's best friend, Eric Stoltz.

Regulars include the acerbic Sandra Bernhard, French Stewart from 3rd Rock from the Sun and movie actor James Woods, brilliantly recreating his role from the movie as Hades, the fast-talking hothead of the underworld.

Clint Eastwood was one of the stars on the list. 'We thought he could be something like a man-with-no-name character,' says executive producer Bob Schooley, 'but we didn't get past his agent.'

It hardly seems to matter. The show's casting crew appeared to have no trouble finding the perfect people for the many roles. Who better to play the world's first doctor, Hippocrates, than Chicago Hope's Mandy Patinkin? Hercules's gym teacher, Phys Oediupus, is voiced by fitness guru Richard Simmon, and Jason, captain of the Argo, whose crew go in search of the Golden Fleece, is played by Star Trek's William Shatner.

But even the good-natured Mr Donovan, astounded by the quality of the scripts, 'each one funnier than the last', found life in the sound booth slightly inhibiting.

'Sometimes it was frustrating when I had to jack my voice up even higher than in the movie. Now I'm playing him aged 15 and making him even more innocent than I could stand at times.

'Disney has a slightly different slant on Hercules than the historians, although the series has more mythological characters and historical facts than the feature film.'

As well as the mythological stories, the show is packed with action and humour, and explores some modern issues, including divorce, conservation and the generation gap.

But there is time for fun. Hercules hangs out down at the Agora (an equivalent is today's shopping mall!) with the rest of the crowd – including geeky Icarus (French Stewart), Adonis, (Diedrich Bader), Helen of Troy (Jodi Benson) and the scratchy Cassandra (Sandra Bernhard).

The supervillain of the show is, of course, James Woods. 'Oh my God, what a blast!' says Donovan. 'That man is on full tilt 24 hours a day. The combination of Disney and his sense of humour is one of the funniest mixes you'll ever see.'

Woods even sings, sort of. His rendition of the show-stopping My Town in the Hercules and the River Styx episode has to be heard to be believed. 'I sort of Rex Harrison-ed my way through it,' says Woods. 'Don't get me wrong – the song came out great. But let's just say, they haven't written any more songs for my character since.

'James treated every episode as a new movie. He would work a line 30 different ways to get the best one. His ad libs were sensational and he treated it incredibly seriously,' says executive producer Tad Stones.

'Having him and the film's cast aboard gave instant credibility to the series and the result is arguably the greatest cast in children's animated television history.'

Spot on!

One Hundred and One Dalmatians remains an enchanting animated classic. Pauline McLeod celebrates the success of the loveable hounds

DOG-GONE it! Thirty-seven years old and this Disney classic is still knocking spots off its junior rivals. But when One Hundred and One Dalmatians was conceived way back in 1961, not only did the animators not have a clue what a heart-warming success they were creating, the process almost drove them dotty!

It took 300 of them three years to paint six and a half million spots (6,469,952 to be precise) on Pongo, the cartoon canine male lead, his love, Perdita, and 99 puppies as they appear in 113,760 frames. Eight hundred gallons of special paint – enough liquid to dress the exterior of 135 average-sized homes – was used.

Ollie Johnston, now 83, is one of Disney's legendary 'Nine Old Men' who worked closely with Walt on many of his finest toons. He was also Perdita's animator on One Hundred and One Dalmatians. 'The previous movie, Sleeping Beauty, had not done well at the box office so the budget for Dalmatians had to be scaled down and was done relatively cheaply,' he admits.

'Walt didn't like it at first and was kind of shocked because all the other Disney films had been so soft. This was just too different for him with its strong black lines.'

Ollie adds: 'We went to a Dalmatian farm to practise drawing them. The people there made me so mad I almost wanted to hit them because if the puppies weren't born a certain way, they were drowned. It was to do with lack of spots and other markings.'

One Hundred and One Dalmatians is a classic tale of good and evil. No sooner are 15 adorable puppies born to Pongo and Perdita than the crafty Cruella de Vil sets out to kidnap them. Along with another 84 Dalmatians she has stolen, Cruella intends to make herself a special fur coat.

The ever-present cigarette she waves like a wand is her most noticeable characteristic. 'The special effects people were terrific with Cruella's cigarette smoke. They studied and studied the way it curled into the air,' says Ollie.

Not that there's even a wisp of smoke in the politically correct Nineties TV series, which features in the Disney Channel's 101 Weekend (Saturday 12th, Sunday 13th) along with the live-action and animated movie versions of the story. In the series you simply see how addicted Cruella is to smoking but in a way, which hopefully brings the anti-tobacco message home to kids.

KIM BASINGER
from outcast to Oscar-winner
Interview: Garth Pearce
Photo: Kobal
Kim Basinger's famous pouting mouth is set in a wide smile as she reflects on her remarkable comeback.
She suffered a succession of flop movies and a court stripped her of millions of dollars for pulling out of one of them. But she quietly reinvented herself for L.A. Confidential and won an Oscar for Best Supporting Actress.
The film shows the dark underbelly of what was really going on in the booming film city of Los Angeles during the Fifties – widespread corruption and a secret web of illicit relationships – and Basinger's performance suggests she was drawing on her own sobering experiences of LA during the Eighties and Nineties.

Finding the films that you want to see couldn't be easier! Simply choose the day you want to watch and the time. For your convenience each day is divided up into six hour blocks. You can further specify your choice of film by selecting the genre of film that you fancy.
The engine will return the results back in a minute. Again, you can further refine your search results by having them returned to you sorted by time, channel or rating.
For example, you may want to watch a musical next monday morning. You'd simply choose the relevant day from the "DAY" box and the morning times, in this case "9.00am" from the "TIME" box. The "GENRE" box allows you to choose the musical element. To get the results returned in either time, channel or rating, select the relevant sort type from the "SORT" choice.

Cable Guide goes online

CABLE GUIDE
Brought to you by tiscali

NOW your favourite cable TV magazine is on the world wide web, giving you instant and easy access to the most comprehensive TV listings available anywhere. The Cable Guide website puts the most up-to-date programme guide right at your fingertips. No matter when you log on, there'll always be full listings – including BBC, ITV, Channel Four and Channel 5 – for the next month, so you can plan well ahead! The site will be updated every day, so if there are any of those annoying late changes to programming, you'll know about it first.

We've designed the website for you to use it in lots of different ways. You can customise the programme guide however it suits you – for instance, if you want only information about movies or sport, then you can choose to get listings on just movies or sport. If you only want to know about certain channels and not others, that's easily done too.

With so many channels, finding what you want to watch can be like looking for a needle in a haystack. But the search facility on the Cable Guide site gives you exactly what you're after, no matter how specific. Say your favourite actor is Clint Eastwood. Using the Power Search option, you just type in his name and you'll get a list of every film (and every TV programme, if you want) that he stars in for the coming month. In the same way, you could find all the films directed by Steven Spielberg, or all the Westerns that are on in the month.

Maybe you'd like to know about the cookery programmes coming up, or when all the live football matches are on. You can be as specific or as general as you want.

And if you only want listings for a certain day, or even a specific time of the day – say, from 8.00-10.00pm – that's no problem either. You'll have easy access to all the listings for all the channels. We're also including full information on the programmes, including episode titles, synopses and stars, so you'll know exactly what you're watching.

When you've found what your looking for, you can create your own TV diary, to store the details of the programmes you are interested in. You can even ask to have an e-mail message sent to you to remind you when the programmes are being shown.

Sometimes it seems there's just too much to choose from, so each day we'll give you our pick of the best on cable, including movies and sports. And there'll be a forum where you can have your say on the topic of the day. Cable Guide online will also bring you news and features about your favourite stars and shows, great competitions, quizzes and loads of fun for the kids.

Digital TV is coming soon and new channels are planned. Cable Guide is dedicated to keeping you in touch with what's on – and when – in the world of Cable TV. With the magazine and now the website, Cable Guide is all you need for happy viewing. Log on to the Cable Guide website at http://www.cableguide.co.uk

Cable & Wireless Internet

Getting started on the internet can seem a daunting task if you've never used it before, but Cable & Wireless make it easy for you. To get started, you'll need a PC, a modem and a telephone line. The Cable & Wireless internet CD contains all the software you'll need to start surfing the web, sending and receiving e-mail, accessing newsgroups and even creating your own web pages. The CD also includes a guide to show you the basics of finding your way around the internet.

With two internet packages to choose from – Cable & Wireless Internet and Cable & Wireless Internet Lite – you can select the option that suits you best.

The standard Cable & Wireless Internet service offers five e-mail addresses and 5mb of space to create your own website. For a flat fee of just £10 a month, you'll have unlimited access to the internet, with call charges as low as 75p per minute.

Cable & Wireless Internet Lite is ideal for the new or 'lite' user. There's no monthly charge at all and you'll also get an e-mail address. Calls are charged at local type rates.

It's simple, straightforward and fuss-free. If you'd like the Cable & Wireless internet pack with the CD, a beginner's guide to the internet and a guide to installing and using the Cable & Wireless internet service, phone FreeCall 0800 0923 016.

Once you're on the net, visit the Cable & Wireless home page, where you'll find information, advice and services. Without even leaving the Cable & Wireless website, you can check out the TV listings, look at the weather forecast, find out what's on at your local cinema, visit our Shoppers Universe or try your hand at our trivia game or general knowledge quiz. The Cable & Wireless home page is a great starting point for exploring the internet and guides you in the right direction to some of the best sites on the world wide web. The internet can open up a whole new world of entertainment, education and practical services for you and your family. With Cable & Wireless easy internet services, it's never been simpler to start surfing.

Spitzberg – A Long Night in the Ice Pack
Sunday 13th 11.00pm

GRIN AND

It's winter in Spitzberg and aboard the ship Antarctica, expedition leader Jean-Louis Etienne and his crew are trying to keep their spirits up while living in permanent darkness, freezing temperatures and with hungry polar bears. Trapped in the ice until the thaw comes, they have come to explore and understand the Arctic Ocean. A Discovery Channel premiere follows their eerie seven-month tale

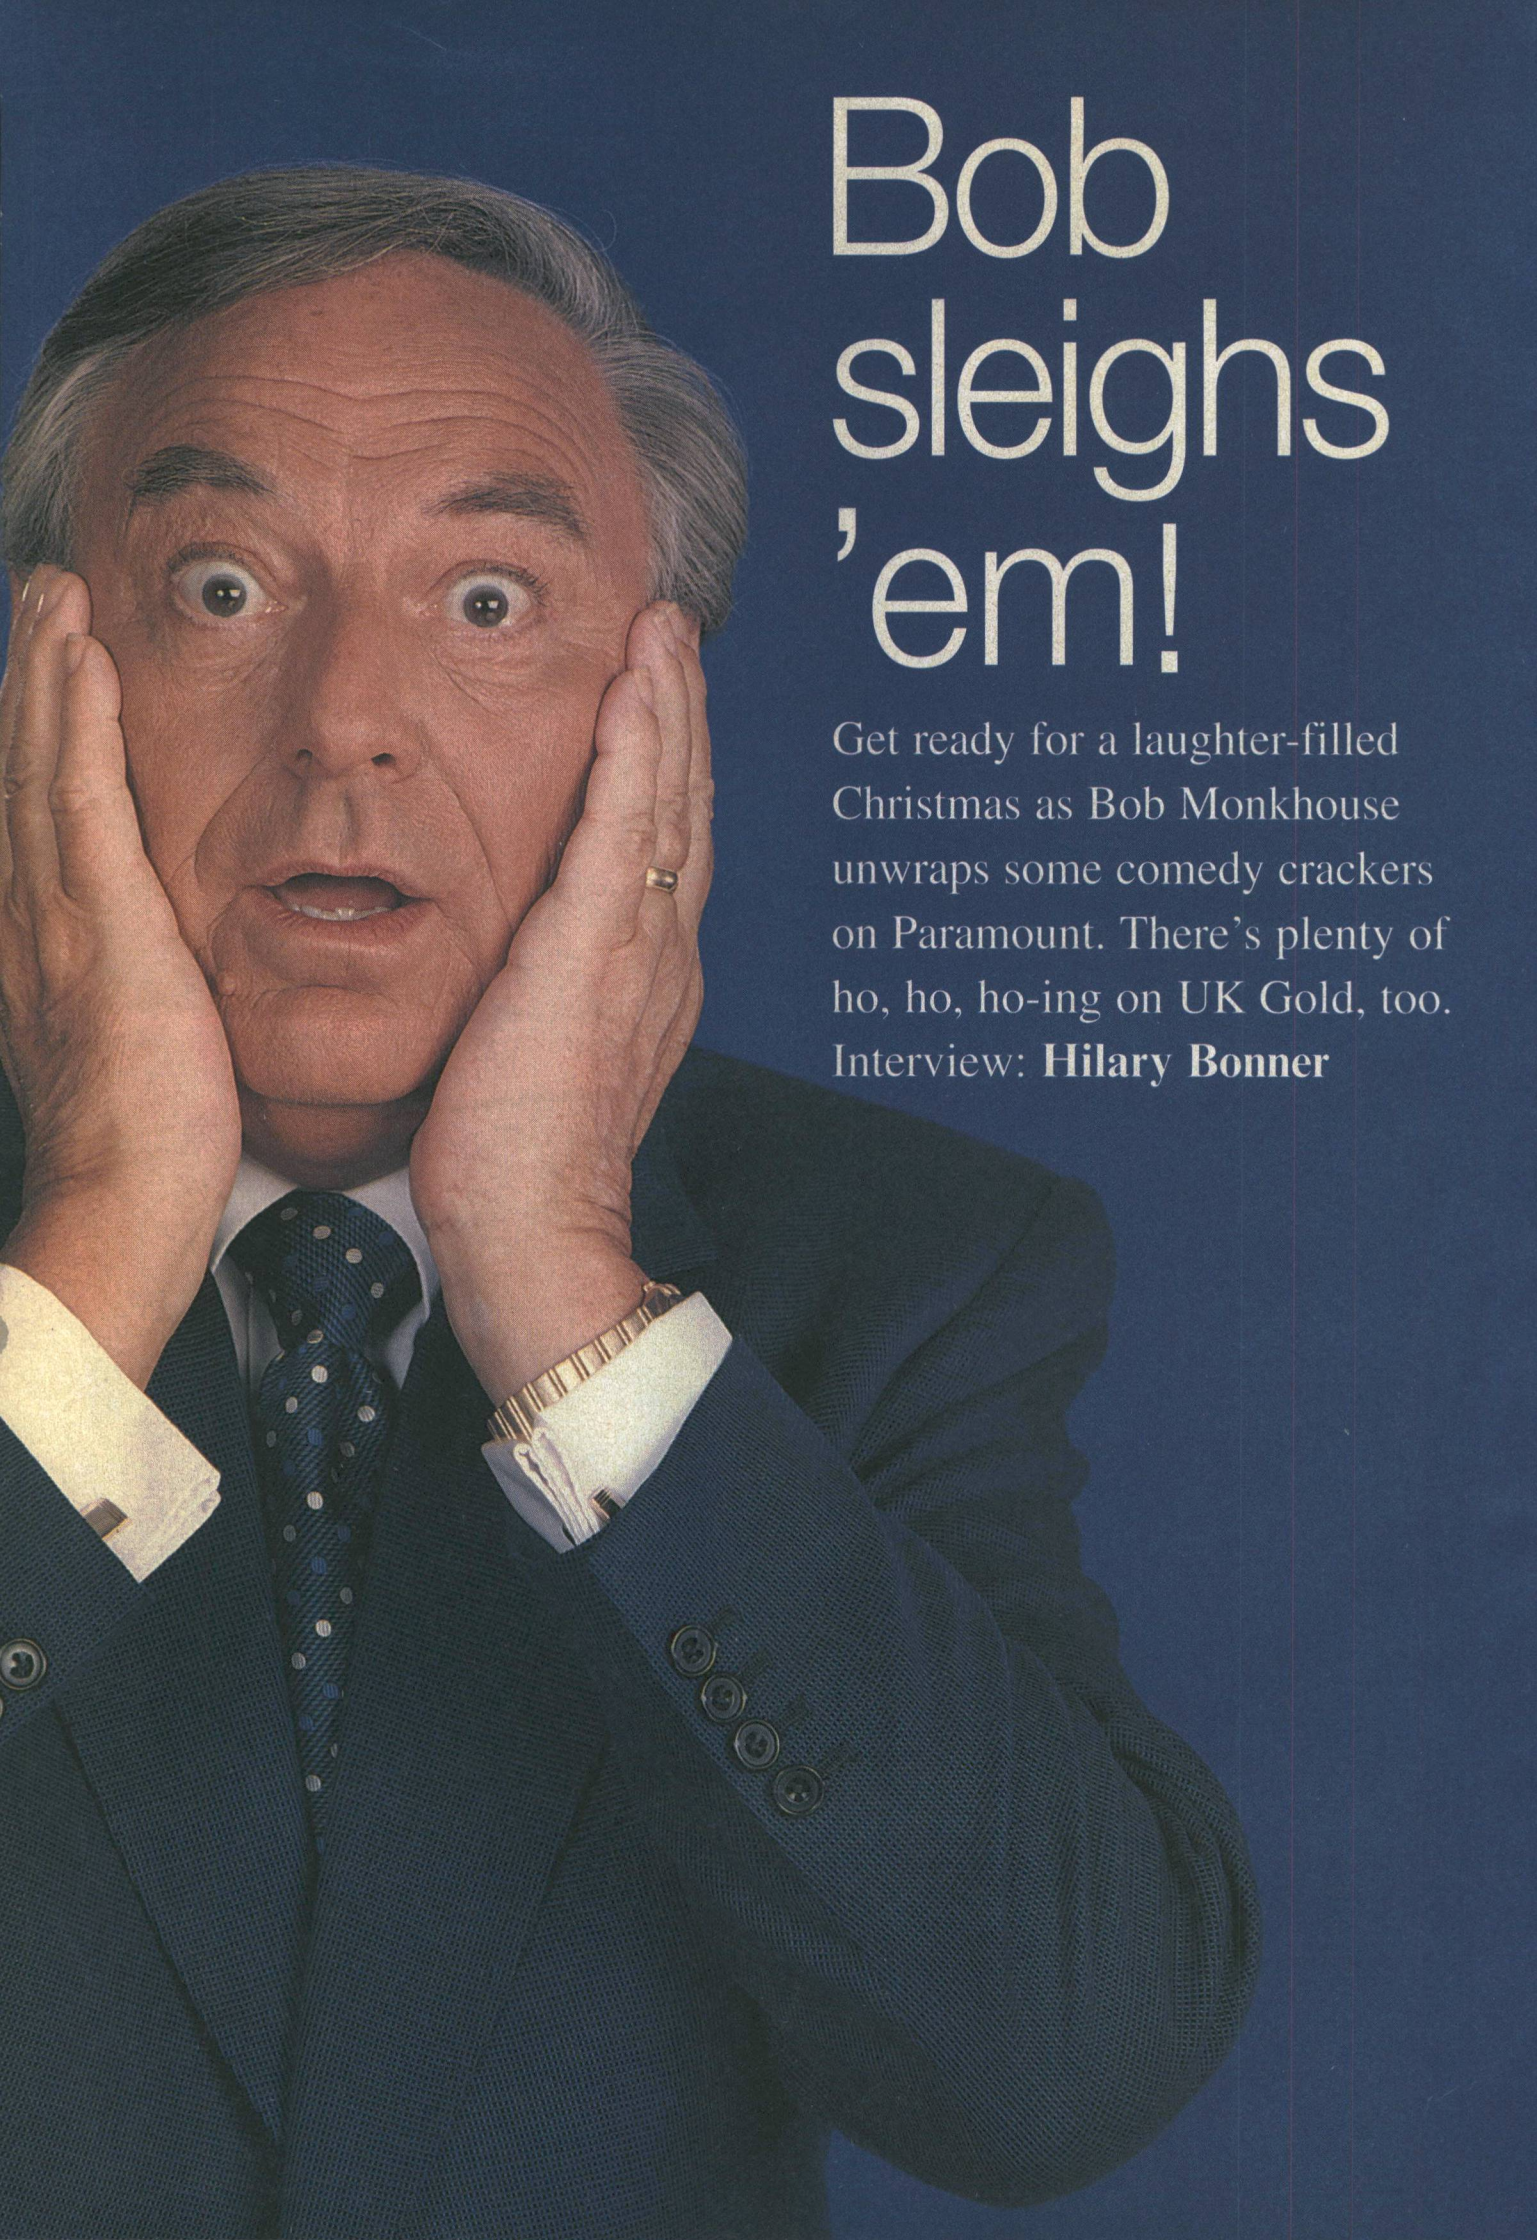
'YOU can only kill a polar bear in self-defence,' explains expedition leader Jean-Louis Etienne, who's on board his ship the Antarctica. 'They aren't afraid of man,' he continues, 'have no predators and are carnivorous, so always keep a gun with you. If one comes within 100 metres, bang on the ground to scare it. If it isn't afraid you'll have to take aim.'

Etienne and his team are voluntarily trapped in freezing temperatures and permanent darkness on their ship in the middle of the Antarctic. For most, it would seem the stuff nightmares are made of, but for Etienne (a veteran explorer who was the first to reach the North Pole by foot) and his crew it is a fascinating challenge. Last September they set sail for Spitzberg, an island on the roof of the world that is 1,000 kilometres north of Norway and is the last outpost of Europe. Trapped in the vice-like grip of the ice, the team collect samples from the hostile heart of the Arctic Ocean, whose water currents dictate weather patterns all over the planet.

The crew find the absence of day and night unsettling. It's difficult groping your way through permanent darkness and the team find their bodies rebelling against their inner clocks. They endure three months of endless night. In a place without sun and quite literally on top of the world, the pace of life is slow. Days revolve round a small number of repetitive activities. Frequent sightings of polar bears break up the boredom. Whenever any member of the crew ventures outside, a bear seems to be lurking a few hundred metres from the ship. The animals, after enduring long winter months, are drawn by the cooking smells from the ship's galley. They are an impressive sight. As the world's largest carnivore, an adult male weighs 800kg, is three-and-half-metres tall and can reach speeds of up to 40km per hour. Having no natural predators in the animal kingdom, the polar bear is king of the entire Arctic region.

Towards the end of the long winter, there is another surreal touch to life – at midnight it is daylight, which again throws the body clock into confusion. For Etienne, the North Pole is a magnet – he's been visiting it for about 10 years. 'I still don't know what the attraction is,' he says. 'I can only guess. I think it puts you in touch with yourself. Once I'm into the rhythm of the region, a feeling of well-being takes over.'

BEAR IT!



Bob sleighs 'em!

Get ready for a laughter-filled Christmas as Bob Monkhouse unwraps some comedy crackers on Paramount. There's plenty of ho, ho, ho-ing on UK Gold, too.
Interview: Hilary Bonner

FUNNYMAN Bob Monkhouse is 70 years old and showing no signs of slowing up.

There's a reason for that, he says. 'Comedians who retire tend to do little other than get drunk and prop up golf clubs,' he proclaims with the directness that has always been a big part of his style.

There is also the fact that he remains so much in demand. As well as continuing to perform as a stand-up comic, he is also frequently on TV discussing and examining comedy.

'I seem to be regarded as something of a comedy guru,' he says.

And in an inspired piece of casting, the Paramount Comedy Channel have hired Bob to host two special nights of seasonal comedy, featuring modern American sitcoms, under the title of Bob's Christmas Crackers.

The very traditional British comic is thrilled. Anyone who thinks he is only at home with British sitcoms would be quite wrong.

'I love these American shows,' he says. 'The Americans churn out quality sitcoms, 26 episodes a year or something, because it's a team effort. They employ teams of writers who work together on ideas.

'We tend to produce inspired individuals. But we do not approach TV comedy in the same way that the Americans do.

'We could never produce that quantity of top shows.'

Bob himself has starred in only one sitcom, My Pal Bob – and that was 40 years ago. 'But I do deeply regret that I never did more,' he admits.

That, however, is one of Bob's very few regrets. He has enjoyed a glittering career spanning more than half a century, and is delighted to be working as hard as ever.

As well as Bob's Christmas Crackers, he has just finished a new series of the game show Wipe Out.

Early next year he will be making two ITV special documentaries on comedy and will probably host a brand new game show, but that has yet to be finalised.

His two volumes of autobiography, Crying for Laughter, published in 1993, and Over the Limit, published earlier this year, established him as a talented writer. That, coupled with a renaissance as a cabaret artist with a surprisingly blue brand of humour, has put Bob's career on a different plane in recent years.

And there is also the Monkhouse Archive on Radio Two.

'Somebody somewhere must figure that I know something about comedy,' he says.

But it is still his one liners in variety and on game shows like The Golden Shot and Celebrity Squares, as well as the National Lottery, for which he is best known. Even they can be pretty near the mark nowadays.

Earlier this year he found himself in controversy on the Lottery show with quips about Foreign Secretary Robin Cook and Camilla Parker Bowles.

'I can't blame him for putting it about a bit before his looks start to go,' said Bob, referring to the news that Cook was having an affair with his secretary, whom he later married.

And on Camilla: 'She can't become Queen because if her face was on the stamps no one would buy them.'

The BBC was bombarded with complaints. However, Bob gives the impression that he quite enjoys being the talk of the town.

'You get complaints about the most inoffensive gags on the Lottery show,' he says. 'It seems to attract people who don't have much of a sense of humour.

'They tune in just to get their Lottery numbers and don't seem prepared for my humour.'

The shows he will present for Paramount are all Christmas episodes and range from Seinfeld through Roseanne and Cybill to Frasier.

Seinfeld remains Bob's personal favourite.

'It's such a special show,' he says. 'Proper jokes are banned, you know. Anything that sounds like a joke is out. It's just the ideas that are so funny.'

Bob will introduce the shows in front of a roaring fire by a Christmas tree.

'I just have to come up with brilliant witty links,' he says.

UK Gold

WHILE presenting the harder-hitting modern American humour on Paramount, Bob admits that he will also be setting his video for UK Gold over Christmas.

Gold is concentrating on comedy in December and golden oldies include two Christmas Dad's Army episodes and a Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em from the early Seventies.

Bob says he is particularly a fan of Dad's Army. 'Jimmy Perry and David Croft's finest work, no doubt about it,' he insists.

Indeed, Gold are banking on Dad's Army pulling in a huge seasonal audience, particularly on Christmas Day. After all, this is the show that attracted audiences of over ten million on BBC1 for repeats shown 30 years after it first marched across our screens in 1968.

Among the other festive comedy treats on UK Gold are Christmas-themed episodes of Men Behaving Badly, One Foot in the Grave, Butterflies, Only Fools and Horses and Ballykissangel.

And if all that Christmas cheer is too much to bear, Rowan Atkinson brings a dash of bah humbug to proceedings as Ebenezer Blackadder in Blackadder's Christmas Carol.

● Christmas comedy is on UK Gold throughout December – see daily listings for details

Face/Off
From Wednesday 16th

PHOTOS: MICHAEL O'NEILL/OUTLINE PRESS/KATZ PICTURES, BSKYB

A change of face for Cage and Travolta. Director John Woo's action movie 'Face/Off' sees the two actors swapping looks and identities with the flick of a surgeon's knife

Rarely can a more ludicrous plot have turned into a more entertaining film than in Face/Off, when bad-guy Cage swaps faces – and identities – with good-guy Travolta. Just what happens when a renowned master criminal can hide behind the face of a much respected federal officer makes for an intriguing situation. It also delivers a fascinating mix of acting styles from two top Hollywood actors who have made 40 movies between them. The stars now face themselves and each other in this exclusive 'Face/Off' for Cable Guide. Interviews: Garth Pearce

NICOLAS CAGE

AGE: 34
BORN: 7 January, 1964 in Long Beach, California.
HEIGHT: 6ft 1in.
BEST DESCRIBED: Intense and unpredictable.
ON FACE/OFF: 'I felt really proud of it, because I was able to go back to what I had learned on small-budget films, which was my experimental laboratory where I tried things out – facial expressions and attitudes. The director, John Woo, just let me go for it.'
ON JOHN TRAVOLTA: 'He is a great actor and mimic. His delivery is more subtle than my personality. I found it difficult to speak in his rhythm. He speaks like an endearing little boy and you can almost see "don't hurt me" in quotations. He is also very polite.'
ON HIMSELF: 'I have always marched to the beat of a different drummer and people think I'm weird.'
BIG BREAK: Peggy Sue Got Married in 1986, directed by his uncle, Francis Ford Coppola.
HITS: Include Peggy Sue Got Married, Moonstruck, Honeymoon in Vegas, The Rock, Con Air, Leaving Las Vegas, City of Angels.
MISSES: Include The Cotton Club, Firebirds, Guarding Tess, It Could Happen to You, Kiss of Death.
LATEST FILM: Snake Eyes, released last month.
OSCARS: One for Best Actor in Leaving Las Vegas (1995). He keeps it on top of his television.
HOME: He has three houses – all in Los Angeles.
WIFE: Actress Patricia Arquette, 30.
CHILDREN: Son, Weston, aged seven, with former girlfriend, model Kristina Fulton.
SUCCESS: 'It has given me the chance to have an idea and not have it just stepped on. I also like money and what it buys. But I am not going to get lazy and say it is always going to be this way.'
MOST EXTRAVAGANT MOMENT: 'My wife borrowed jewellery valued at $250,000 to wear at the Oscars. I told her: "Honey, if I win tonight the jewels are yours." I won, I bought, she kept.'
NAKED MOMENT: While making love in Zandalee.
WHEELS: A 1967 Corvette Sting Ray, a Ferrari, a Bentley and a Lamborghini.
FEARS: 'My son going to school, kidnappers, drugs – I worry a lot. When I was going to therapy my shrink would say that I had a tendency to feel more than I need to. I feel everything a lot.'
EMBARRASSING SECRET: 'I first met my wife Patricia in 1987 and there were immediate sparks. I really wanted it to work out, but she absolutely mesmerised me. I couldn't make anything sexual out of the relationship and we split up for several years. It was the first time it happened to me.'
CRAZIEST THING ABOUT HIM: He ate a live cockroach in a scene for Vampire's Kiss.
FACE/OFF FEE: $7 million.

JOHN TRAVOLTA

AGE: 44
BORN: February 18th, 1954, Englewood, New Jersey.
HEIGHT: 6ft 2in.
BEST DESCRIBED: The comeback king.
ON FACE/OFF: 'It was a blast from the moment I read the script until our final day on set.'
ON NICOLAS CAGE: 'He has a very distinct personality, but what I noticed was his walk. He has that certain stride and I said: "Can I use that for the bad guy?" He said: "Why?" I said: "Because it is such a cool walk." He speaks in a very poetic way, with elongated sounds. I think I had the best time in the film, because I got to play bad most of the time.'
ON HIMSELF: 'I have always been a calm person and have looked on life positively. But being a husband and father has given me more focus in life and my career.'
BIG BREAK: Joined the cast of Welcome Back, Kotter, in 1975.
HITS: Include Saturday Night Fever, Grease, Look Who's Talking, Pulp Fiction, Get Shorty.
MISSES: Include Moment by Moment, Urban Cowboy, Perfect, The Experts, Eyes of an Angel.
LATEST FILM: Primary Colors, which was released in October.
OSCARS: An Oscar nomination for Best Actor in Pulp Fiction (1994).
HOME: Three houses, in Maine, Florida and Los Angeles.
WIFE: Actress Kelly Preston, 35.
CHILDREN: Son Jett, aged six.
SUCCESS: 'It's about much more than just money. I had plenty when my films were unsuccessful, but the criticism really hurt. It is an extraordinary thing to have millions of people going to the cinema to watch your films. I never really appreciated it first time around.'
MOST EXTRAVAGANT MOMENT: 'Buying my third plane, an 80ft Gulfstream 11 for millions of dollars.'
NAKED MOMENT: Never – and says he never will.
WHEELS: 'A couple of pick-up trucks. I am not bothered about cars; I am a plane man and love horses, too.'
FEARS: 'Fortune tellers, especially if they have great ability. I believe that you can always change the outcome of everything and I don't want to be proved wrong.'
EMBARRASSING SECRET: The revelation in his biography, (Back in Character, by Wensley Clarkson, published by Piatkus Books, £10.99) that he was such a fan of Sylvester Stallone that he hung photographs of the star on the walls of his former home in Santa Barbara, California, and would endlessly watch Rocky in his private cinema.
CRAZIEST THING ABOUT HIM: He has created an insect-free garden for wife Kelly, who is afraid of bugs, at their home in Maine ... And he is a member of the Church of Scientology.
FACE/OFF FEE: $11 million.

Or that the longest film ever made is John Henry Timmis IV's 85-hour The Cure for Insomnia? Or that Sylvester Stallone was paid in T-shirts for The Lords of Flatbush, one of his first speaking roles? These and hundreds of other addictive pieces of trivia are contained in The Guinness Book of Film, a difficult-to-put-down, lavishly illustrated reference work that should be standard issue for any self-respecting film fan. This indispensible book is crammed with more facts than you can shake a bucket of popcorn at, and boasts 1000 entertaining and crisply written reviews of the key films of each year, along with star profiles, details of all the major Oscar triumphs and month-by-month news. We have ten copies of The Guinness Book of Film to give away, priced £25 each.

To enter, simply answer the following question on a postcard by 31 December.

WHO WAS THE OSCAR-WINNING STAR OF 'RAGING BULL'?

Send you entry to GUINNESS competition, Cable Guide, 172 Tottenham Court Road, London W1P OJJ. The first ten correct entries drawn at random will win. The usual rules apply.

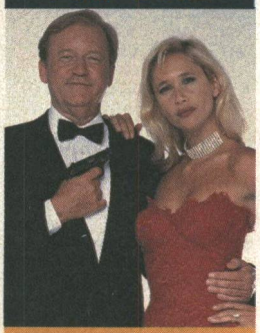
IN THE FRAME



BOB FRIEND

What is your favourite movie?
You know how one film can stick in your memory? For me, it's the French thriller The Wages of Fear – the story of a group of men hired to drive highly volatile nitro-glycerine along dreadful roads.
Who is your favourite actor?
I would choose Tom Cruise but people might wonder whether I was being influenced by my 30-second bit part in Mission: Impossible!
Who is your favourite actress?
Nicole Kidman. I've seen her at celebrity functions and she seems genuinely nice to everyone.
What is your first movie memory?
Sitting in a darkened village hall in 1945 watching Buster Keaton and Charlie Chaplin performing to the strains of a badly tuned grand piano.
What is your favourite comedy?
The Seven Year Itch – it makes sexual tension so funny.
What is your favourite horror film?
The Exorcist. It contains the magic ingredients for a really horrific cinematic experience. Surely the best horror film ever.
What is your favourite sci-fi film?
Independence Day, of course. I had a five-second part in it. When I pop into my local pub, I'm always greeted with a cheery, 'God help us all'!

Manchester United's Andy Cole: 'I have always believed in my ability to score goals and I have never lost it'

Chelsea's Frank Leboeuf: 'I want to win the Premier League and to do that you need 20 quality players'

MATCHES OF THE MONTH

MANCHESTER UNITED V CHELSEA
Sky Sports 1 Wednesday 16th 7.00pm
CHELSEA V MANCHESTER UNITED
Sky Sports 1 Tuesday 29th 7.30pm

ANDY Cole of Manchester United and Frank Leboeuf of Chelsea will come face to face for the first time this month at Old Trafford – with both players defending the controversial policy of squad rotation. Such is the vast array of talent at both clubs that each boasts four forwards who could walk into any other team in the Premiership – and keeping them happy isn't easy.

At Chelsea, Gianluca Vialli, Tore Andre Flo, Pierluigi Casiraghi and Gianfranco Zola vie for places up front, while at Old Trafford it is Cole, Dwight Yorke, Teddy Sheringham and Ole Gunnar Solskjaer. It is hardly surprising that both teams have a reputation for attacking football, and that three matches between the sides last season brought a total of 13 goals (including an FA Cup thriller at Stamford Bridge, which United won 5-3). But what is interesting is how the two managers, Chelsea's Vialli and United's Alex Ferguson, have had contrasting fortunes in keeping a steady ship. Cole, for instance, was left out in the cold early in the season at United but never complained and has now formed what looks to be a lethal partnership with Yorke.

'I have always believed in my ability to score goals and I have never lost it,' said Cole. 'I know I can score goals. I scored 25 last season and I'm delighted with that.

'I think Dwight and I have a good partnership. As a guy, I like Dwight – he is a brilliant footballer. We both enjoy our football and we make a good team. But even when I am not in the side I like it here. My family is settled in Wilmslow in Cheshire. My little boy is three and at nursery school and I am happy.'

Cole's attitude is in contrast to the kind of ideas held dear at Stamford Bridge, where Zola, Flo and Brian Laudrup have all complained about the manager's rotation system, and Laudrup even demanded to leave.

But Leboeuf defends his manager. He said: 'I want to win the Premier League and to do that you need 20 quality players. That is what Luca believes, too, so sometimes you have to rotate a little. If I was to be left out I wouldn't be happy, but I would accept it.

'Players have to just accept these things. There can be up to 55 games in a season, but if we all play 30 each and win the Premier League, nobody can complain. Sometimes you need a rest and it is right for the manager to give you a game off. But I wouldn't want to miss playing United!'

CHELSEA V MAN UNITED – CLASSIC CLASHES OF THE NINETIES

January 4, 1998 (Stamford Bridge) FA Cup, Round 3 Chelsea 3 Man U 5
A stunning performance by United sees them storm into a 5-0 lead. David Beckham scored twice, as did Andy Cole, while Teddy Sheringham completed the rout. To add spice to the game, Chelsea score three goals in the last 15 minutes (two from Gianluca Vialli and one from Graeme Le Saux) to gain some pride from the match.

March 31, 1996 (Villa Park) FA Cup, semi-final Chelsea 1 Man U 2
United come from behind to cancel out a Ruud Gullit goal and march towards the league and cup double in a real thriller. On a quagmire of a pitch at Villa Park, David Beckham and Andy Cole grab the all-important goals.

May 14, 1994 FA Cup Final Chelsea 0 Man U 4
United romp to an FA Cup triumph, but the 4-0 scoreline flatters them as Chelsea dominate the first half, hit the bar and keep the scores level for an hour. But two Eric Cantona penalties, the second a controversial decision, set United on their way. Mark Hughes and Brian McClair finish off the Blues, managed by Glenn Hoddle.

March 5, 1994 FA Premiership (Old Trafford) Man U 0 Chelsea 1
A Gavin Peacock goal gives Chelsea a memorable victory and completes a rare double for the Blues. – the only team in the country to beat United on their own patch all season.

MY MOST MEMORABLE GAME

BOB WILLIS Sky Sports Cricket Commentator

West Indies v England, Fifth Test in St John's, Antigua, February 1994

MY MOST memorable match as a commentator would have to be when I was lucky enough to be behind the microphone when Brian Lara scored an amazing 375 runs and broke the record for the highest ever individual Test Match innings. It was in Antigua in 1994, the pitch was perfect for batting, and as the innings went on it became clear that he could do it. What's more, I realised on the last day that there was a good chance it would be my turn to commentate when he made it. As his score got closer and closer to the 366 mark I remember I got very nervous. I realised that if he did it, whatever I said would go down in cricketing history. I came to the microphone about ten minutes before he broke the record and the commentary box was packed. There was an incredible atmosphere inside the ground and Sir Gary Sobers – who held the previous record of 365 – had flown in. When he did it I think I just said something like: 'He's got there. What a great moment for Lara and a great moment for Trinidad and Tobago.' That night was the last night of the tour, too, so we had a bit of a party, but there was only really one topic of conversation.

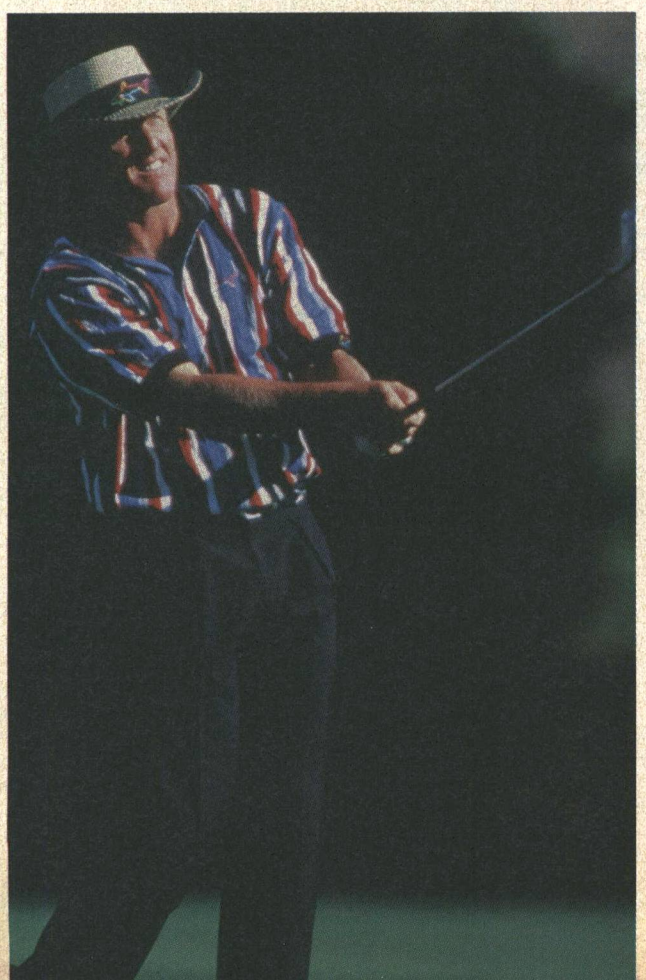
WILL POWER

It's impossible to dislike Will Smith; his natural, sunny confidence illuminates everything he does – whether it's cutting million-selling rap singles, summoning side-splitting laughs on television sitcoms or acting in jumbo-budget Hollywood blockbusters. This week MTV devotes a whole day to Smith and his many incarnations: the man formerly known as the Fresh Prince selects his top ten videos, looks back on his greatest TV moments and swaggers through An Audience With ... special with the same irrepressibly funky exuberance that helped make Independence Day and Men in Black so successful.

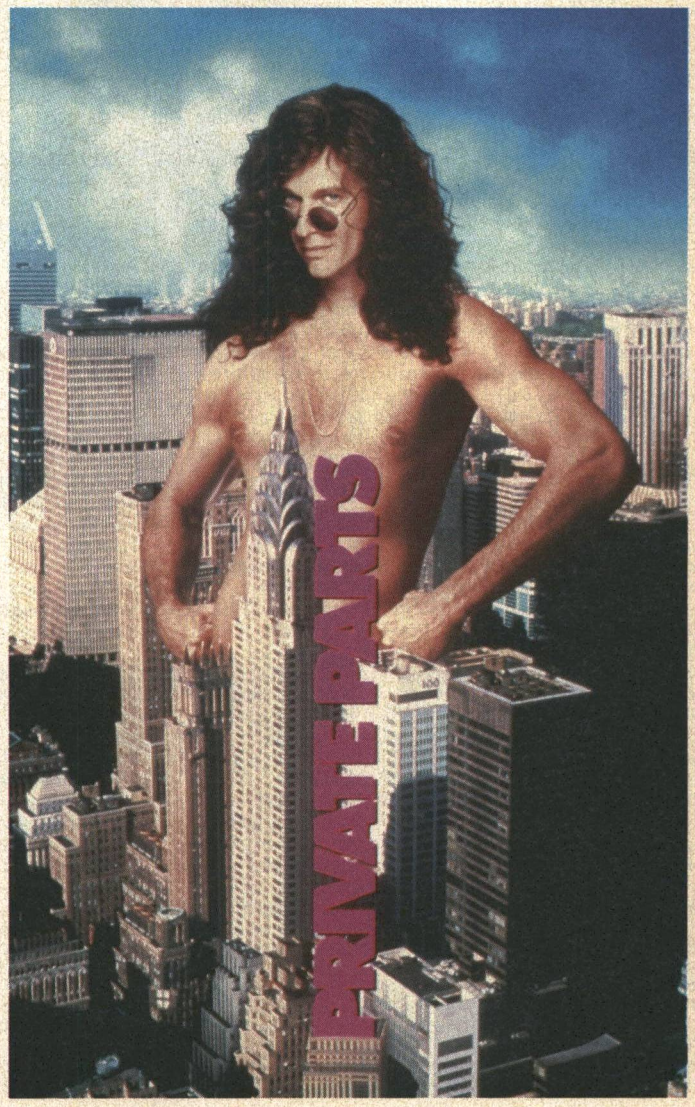
MTV Wednesday 9th starts 7.30am



HOW TO TALK DIRTY AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE

Outrageous American DJ Howard Stern's abrasive, politically incorrect radio show is a love-it-or-hate-it affair that has won him as many enemies as loyal admirers. But the most shocking thing about Private Parts, the movie adaptation of the media guerrilla's memoirs, is the lingering sense of sweetness that survives the many moments of defiantly offensive comedy. And actress-turned-director Betty Thomas – a former regular on cult Eighties cop show Hill Street Blues – reflects this duality elsewhere in the film: for instance, Stern (who plays himself with uncompromising frankness) may be relentlessly aggressive and outspoken on-air, but away from the microphone he is awkward and inarticulate. And while he is forever flirting shamelessly with his female guests and callers, he always remains faithful (albeit precariously so) to his long-suffering wife. The film may stake out some uncomfortable comedy territory, and its protagonist is often difficult to like, but it is forged with such passion and honesty that you leave it feeling oddly moved.

Sky MovieMax Friday 11th 10.00pm



SWING SHIFT

The world's most formidable fairway aces gather down under this week to compete in the Australian Open in Adelaide. Britain's big hitter, the 25-year-old Lee Westwood, will no doubt be defending his title with the sort of dauntless determination that has secured him such trophies as this year's Freeport-McDermott Classic, European TPC and English Open (the latter two within a week of each other). But with a share of a total prize purse of £600,000 at stake, Westwood is sure to meet tough resistance from players of the calibre of last year's runner-up, home favourite Greg Norman (left), and world number one Tiger Woods, who will be anxious for a victory after losing the World Matchplay trophy by one shot to fellow American Mark O'Meara back in October.

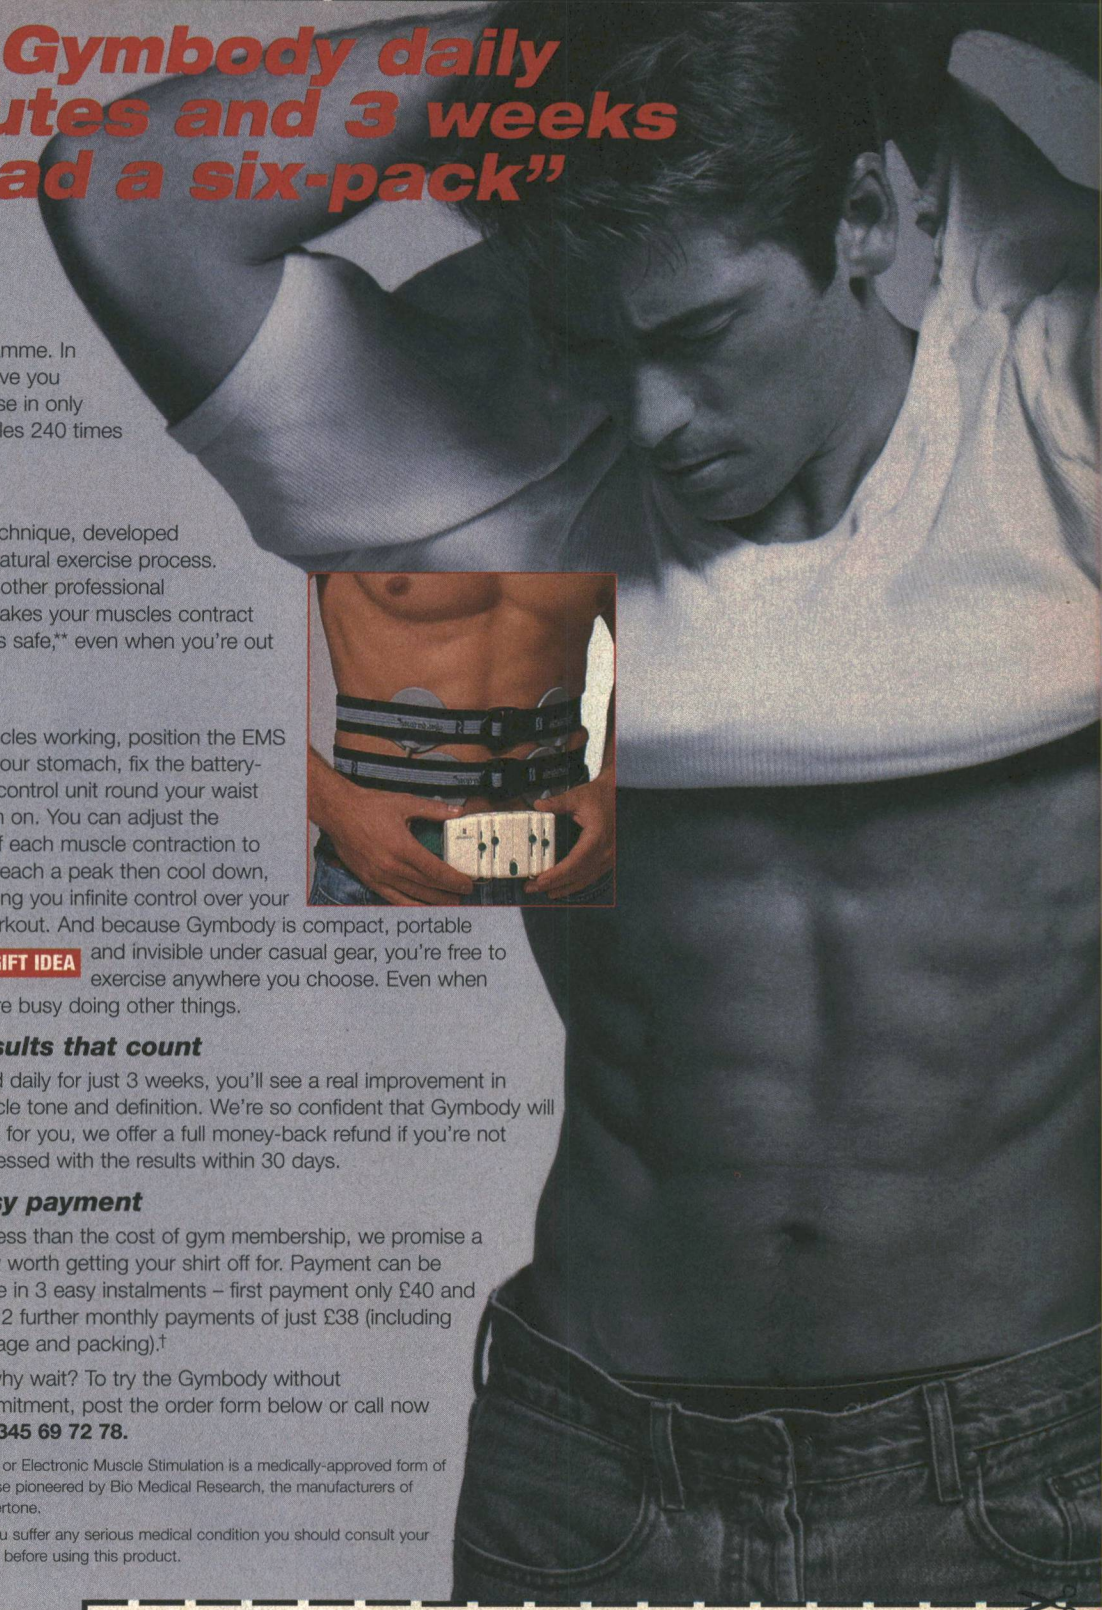
"I used Gymbody daily for 40 minutes and 3 weeks later I had a six-pack"

FHM MAGAZINE



Why wait?

If you want a toned stomach fast, there's no substitute for a Gymbody in your fitness programme. In just 3 weeks, this revolutionary exerciser can give you washboard abs you'll be proud to bare. Because in only 40 minutes, it contracts and relaxes your muscles 240 times – just like sit ups. How can you go wrong?

Proven exercise technique

It's all done with EMS.* – a medically-proven technique, developed over 30 years, which imitates the body's own natural exercise process. Trusted by physios, premier league footballers, other professional sportsmen and even NASA astronauts, EMS makes your muscles contract and relax automatically, so that every workout is safe, even when you're out of condition or temporarily out of action.

Whenever, wherever you choose

To see those muscles working, position the EMS pads on your stomach, fix the battery-operated control unit round your waist and switch on. You can adjust the strength of each muscle contraction to warm up, reach a peak then cool down, giving you infinite control over your workout. And because Gymbody is compact, portable and invisible under casual gear, you're free to exercise anywhere you choose. Even when you're busy doing other things.

Results that count

Used daily for just 3 weeks, you'll see a real improvement in muscle tone and definition. We're so confident that Gymbody will work for you, we offer a full money-back refund if you're not impressed with the results within 30 days.

Easy payment

For less than the cost of gym membership, we promise a body worth getting your shirt off for. Payment can be made in 3 easy instalments – first payment only £40 and then 2 further monthly payments of just £38 (including postage and packing).†

So why wait? To try the Gymbody without commitment, post the order form below or call now on 0345 69 72 78.

* EMS or Electronic Muscle Stimulation is a medically-approved form of exercise pioneered by Bio Medical Research, the manufacturers of Slendertone.

 If you suffer any serious medical condition you should consult your doctor before using this product.

FILM

Joshua Then and Now
Sky Cinema 8.00pm
It's not often that James Woods does a quirky comedy, and in this, one of his earliest leading roles, he plays a young Canadian author determined to put his father's dangerous past behind him. Woods marries into high society, but the results are not everything he hoped for.

GENERAL

Classic Coronation Street
Granada Plus throughout the day
It's time to journey back to Weatherfield for more classic 'Corrie' and to watch how Alf proposes to Audrey, who then reacts in a most unexpected way. Meanwhile, changes are afoot at the Rovers as Annie launches an unsuccessful 'happy hour'.

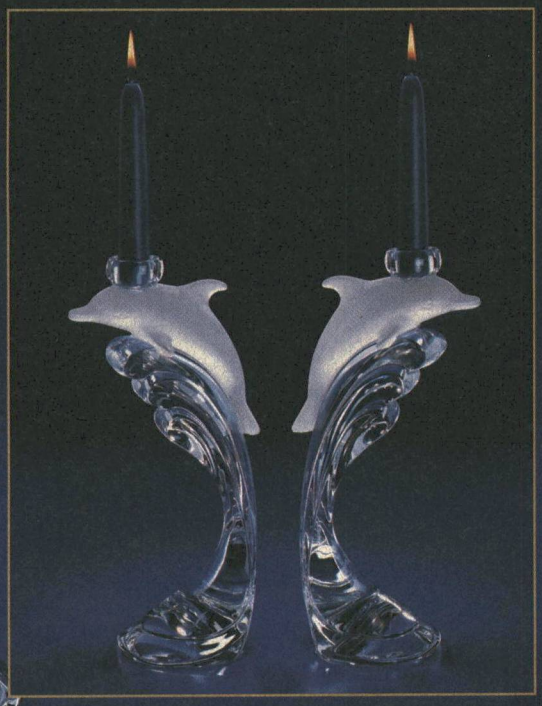
The Crystal Dolphin Candlesticks

Dancing dolphins light up your home with beauty and grace



Shown smaller than actual size of 9¼" (23.5cm) high.
Candles not included.

Please post by 30th November for Christmas Delivery

Magnificent dolphins, the playful children of the sea.

Now celebrated by the master craftsmen of Brooks & Bentley is a splendid work of art in fine lead crystal, The Crystal Dolphin Candlesticks. The perfect combination of a pair of sleek dolphins at play in a work of fluid grace and charm.

Faceted and fire polished, the clear lead crystal catches the light and scatters it in a shower of colour and brilliance while the pair of frosted dolphins leap out of the waves evoking their free spirit in the enchanted world of the ocean.

Clear and frosted crystal in perfect harmony

Imagine how this pair of crystal creatures will look in your home. A perfect centrepiece for your dining table or as a pair to decorate your mantelpiece. Wherever they are displayed this pair of exquisite candlesticks will be admired by everyone. The Crystal Dolphin Candlesticks are available from Brooks & Bentley at the price of just £95.00* per pair. To bring the shining lights of the sea into your home please complete and return the reservation form by 10th January, 1999 or telephone 01732 834400 today. You need send no money now. Ref: 1164888

SAND, CAT HAIRS, DUST, AND EVEN DUST MITES, NOTHING GETS BY MY 8½-POUND ORECK XL.

The favourite vacuum of thousands of hotels and more than 1 million professional and private users. Now you can use the incredibly powerful Oreck XL vacuum, with its special top-fill design, to clean your own home better than ever before.

Take the Oreck Challenge. We'll let you try the Oreck XL risk free for 15 days. There's no obligation.

The Oreck XL's 5-Stage Hypo-Allergenic Filtration System effectively traps particles as small as 0.1 micron. There's virtually no after dust.

It's the lightest full-size vacuum available. It weighs 8½-pounds. So vacuuming stairs is easy. Its powerful pile-lifting roller brushes revolve at an incredible 6,500 rpm to remove the deepest embedded dirt.

The Oreck Helping Hand® handle is orthopaedically designed so there's no need to squeeze your hand or bend your wrist. It's the favourite vacuum of those who suffer from hand or wrist problems.

The Exclusive Microsweep® gets bare floors super clean, without manual adjustments or any hoses or attachments to crack or break.

A full 10-year guarantee against breakage or burnout of the housing. Plus a full 3-year warranty on the Oreck XL, Xtended Life, motor.

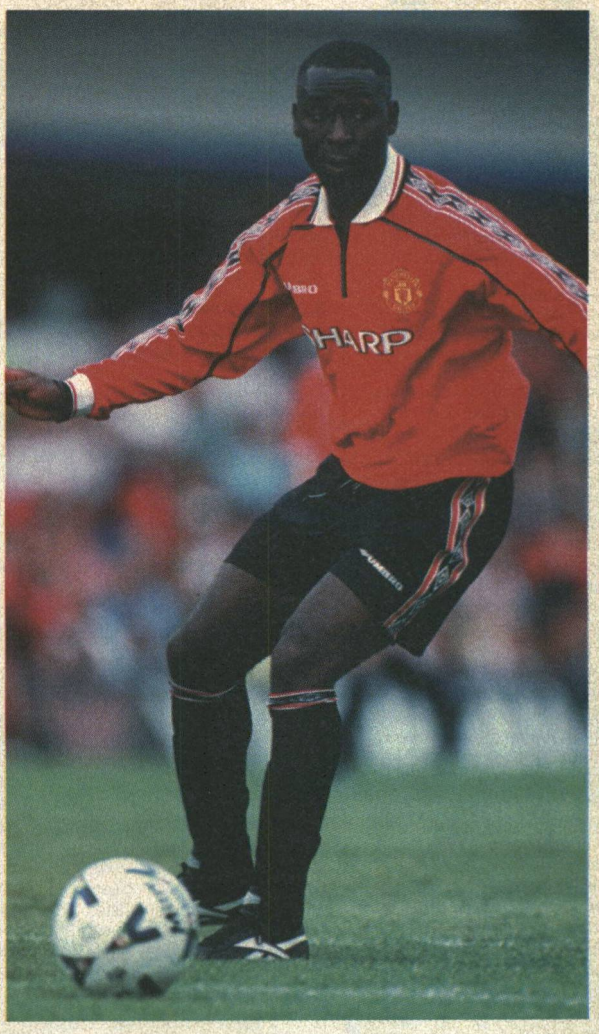
MANCHESTER UNITED v CHELSEA

A Premiership match of impressive pedigree, Wednesday's showdown between Manchester United and Chelsea at Old Trafford is the first of the month's two meetings between these fearsome veterans of the top league (they battle it out again live on Sky Sports 1 on Tuesday 29th at 7.30pm). Both games are likely to be completely bereft of seasonal cheer, with neither team willing to call a Christmas truce. But this week Alex Ferguson's side have the home advantage as they take on the international might of Gianluca Vialli's Chelsea; and what an advantage – United have been very strong at Old Trafford recently. Chelsea might benefit from the international flair of a team that includes the strike force of Tore Andre Flo and Gianfranco Zola, but United can be counted upon to play with similar panache – they boast stylish performers such as David Beckham and the effective upfront partnership of Dwight Yorke and Andy Cole (right). Whatever the form of the teams on the day, viewers are guaranteed a thrilling 90 minutes' worth of football in the week's most attractive fixture.

Sky Sports 1 Wednesday 16th 7.00pm – LIVE



SPOT THE DOGS

Walt Disney's cockle-warming cartoon classic One Hundred and One Dalmatians (which was recently given an enjoyable live-action overhaul) makes its British television bow this week. Made in 1961, this enchanting outing is characterised by an edgier style of animation than had previously been employed by the Disney studio, and it perfectly complements the story's darkly funny tone. The plot combines mischievous comedy and suspenseful pacing to follow an animal task force as they attempt to find and rescue the kidnapped canines of the title from the evil clutches of the dastardly Cruella De Vil.

Disney Channel Sunday 13th 7.00pm

LET'S FACE THE MUSIC AND DANCE

An irresistibly romantic song-and-dancer from New York's favourite neurotic Woody Allen, Everyone Says I Love You examines the tangled and fickle love lives of the members of a wealthy, extended family. Allen surrounds himself with another terrific ensemble cast that boasts the likes of Julia Roberts, Goldie Hawn (right), Drew Barrymore, Tim Roth and the obligatory Alan Alda, and summons an infectious exuberance from his intentionally ragged musical set-pieces. Highlights among the perky production numbers include Barrymore's dead grandfather and his phantom friends hot-hoofing their way through an ebullient rendition of Enjoy Yourself, and Allen and Hawn's magical, moonlit waltz on the banks of the Seine.

FILM

Kama Sutra: A Tale of Love
FilmFour 10.10pm
This film caused a stir in India because of its raw and naked exposure of what love is like in a country where sexual adventure is still frowned upon. The dramas of the couples are beautifully photographed as they search for absolute love.

GENERAL

Mekong
Travel 9.00pm
This series, which journeys along the Mekong River, takes us through a remote area of northern Laos that has rarely been seen by outsiders. En route, there's time to visit some tiny villages and learn of life among the Theravada Buddhists.

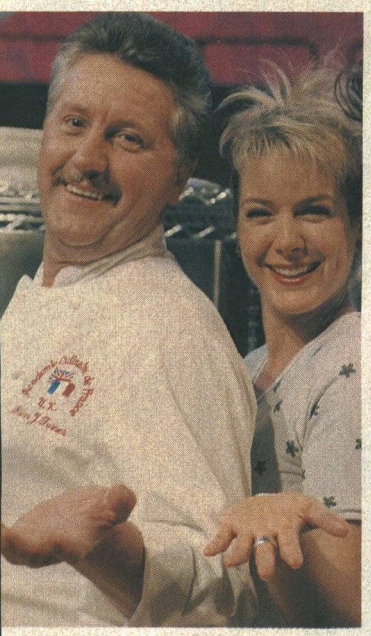
FOOD THE MONTH'S MOUTH-WATERING HIGHLIGHTS



FOOD FIGHT

The country's leading chefs lock spatulas in fierce culinary combat in Carlton Food Network's new series Superchefs (starting Sunday 6th 3.00pm). In each episode of this against-the-clock cooking show, two duelling gastronomes are allowed 40 minutes to prepare two mouth-watering masterpieces of their choice, drawing only on ingredients they have chosen beforehand. Those attempting to out-cook each other in the series, which is hosted by GMTV's Penny Smith, include channel favourites Brian Turner (pictured with Penny) and Ross Burden, and among the show's merciless celebrity tasters are Toyah Wilcox and Bobby Davro.

AROUND THE WORLD IN TASTY WAYS

For Twelve Chefs of Christmas (Carlton Food Network, starting Saturday 12th 10.30am), the likes of Henry Harris and Alex Floyd have scoured the globe in search of a selection of alternative seasonal spreads. Yuletide dishes from countries such as South Africa, Thailand, Australia and Italy are represented, but for those traditionalists who believe Christmas just wouldn't be Christmas without roast turkey and stuffing, Tessa Bramley prepares a classic English lunch. And to tickle those festive tastebuds, here's an Italian cake to bake ...

ITALIAN CHRISTMAS CAKE

Ingredients

4tbsp of sugar
Caster sugar
Fresh cream
5tbsp of Strega (Italian liqueur)
1 small panettone, possibly fruity
1/2 pint (500g) of mixed winter berries

Method

1. Cut the panettone into 4 pieces and place in baking tray
2. Pour the cream into a bowl and whip until firm, adding sugar
3. Bake the panettone for 3-5 minutes in a moderate oven
4. Flambé by covering the baked panettone with Strega and setting alight. Wait until flame burns out
5. Cover pieces of panettone with caster sugar
6. Chop the winter berries and add to the whipped cream for serving
7. Serve with a spoon of the cream and berry mixture on either side of the cake.

LOVE STARS BY MARGIE THILLART

3rd Mel Smith 4th Jeff Bridges
4th Ronnie Corbett 8th Teri Hatcher
15th Don Johnson 18th Brad Pitt
28th Denzel Washington 31st Val Kilmer

Sensational ★★★ Stimulating ★★ Satisfactory ★

Capricorn
23 December-20 January ★★
Your star patterns are adventurous and urge you to try something different. But before you throw caution to the wind or burn your bridges behind you, consider the consequences your actions will have on loved ones.

Aquarius
21 January-19 February ★★★
Although your mood may be impetuous, you'll scarcely put a foot wrong between now and Christmas. Not only is your timing likely to be spot on, but you'll attract the right people into your life at just the right time.

Pisces
20 February-20 March ★★
Some sort of plan may be forming in your mind, but wait until early next year before you implement it. The planets urge you to share your secrets and dreams with loved ones, rather than leave them guessing about the future.

Aries
21 March-20 April ★★
Your month may begin on an upbeat note, but you'll grow more serious as time marches on. Channel your energy into romantic escapades and making your mark on life. It's a special time of year, but success requires extra effort.

Taurus
21 April-21 May ★★
Emotionally, you'll be inclined to keep your feelings secret in the lead up to Christmas. Physically, you can expect the pace to be hectic and your energy to wane. Balance duty with desire rather than denying yourself.

Gemini
22 May-21 June ★★★
Your people skills will come in handy during this socially active month. Someone who is gregarious and possesses a generous spirit may win your heart soon, with a new relationship set to blossom in the New Year.

Cancer
22 June-23 July ★★
You'll home in quickly on what's wrong with your life, but need to look inwardly for answers rather than expecting others to solve your problems. Your lesson this month is to learn how to open up emotionally.

Leo
24 July-23 August ★★★
Despite the hectic pace, this can be your happiest and most romantic time of year. You may find yourself playing the role of organiser for an exciting event, or you'll accept a romantic proposal that may have far-reaching results.

Virgo
24 August-23 September ★★
There'll be a fine line between help and interference, so you'll need to let intuition be your guide. Someone who seems to be muddling their way through life could become your pet project in the New Year.

Libra
24 September-23 October ★
You must remember to connect your brain to your mouth before speaking. Your stars suggest a tendency to blurt out words without concern for the effect they have on others. Set that innate Libran tact and diplomacy to full advantage.

Scorpio
24 October-22 November ★★
You're likely to squander your time, money and emotions without regard for the consequences. And while this undisciplined approach may be quite out of character, it'll be the New Year before your sanity and will power return.

Sagittarius
23 November-22 December ★★
There may be ups and downs to contend with in early December, but things will stabilise by Christmas. The planets warn that someone may toy with your emotions and you'll have to be very strong to resist their overtures.

Here is a colourful and creative idea that will give children years of pleasure. For generations children have enjoyed playing with building blocks and have benefited from them.Now this super table is available with a special block building top – the blocks "key in" securely. With each table we supply a 70 piece set of blocks completely FREE. These are compatible with other makes available from toy shops. Good news when deciding what presents to buy in future.The flat top sits securely on the top of the block surface. The table is then suitable for all games, arts, crafts etc. and meals.

Safe, Strong & Hardwearing

The table and chairs are moulded in high quality material and will give years of good service. There are no sharp edges and they are easily cleaned. When not in use the set packs away to just 18" x 18" x 6" which also makes it easy to take on picnics or holidays.

Outstanding Value

It is easy to spend £20 to £30 on children's toys that are soon discarded or broken. At just £14.99 this set is remarkable value and sure to give many years of pleasure.

PLUS! As a special Thank-You for ordering we will enclose your Micro Computer Game worth £7.99 FREE! Please order today and we will deliver to your home without delay.

FILM

Mystery Science Theatre 3000: The Movie
Sky Premier 2.00pm

A big-screen outing for the cult TV series, this is a hilarious cross between Woody Allen's What's Up Tiger Lily? and Beavis and Butt-head. Two robots and their human sidekick, presented in silhouette at the foot of the screen, heckle their way through the sci-fi flick This Island Earth.

GENERAL

Frasier
Paramount Comedy Channel 10.00pm

The sweetly pompous psychiatrist is at the centre of more comic complications in this cult series. In tonight's episode, Crane versus Crane, Frasier (superbly incarnated by Kelsey Grammer) is pitted against his brother, Niles (David Hyde Pierce), in a farcical courtroom clash.

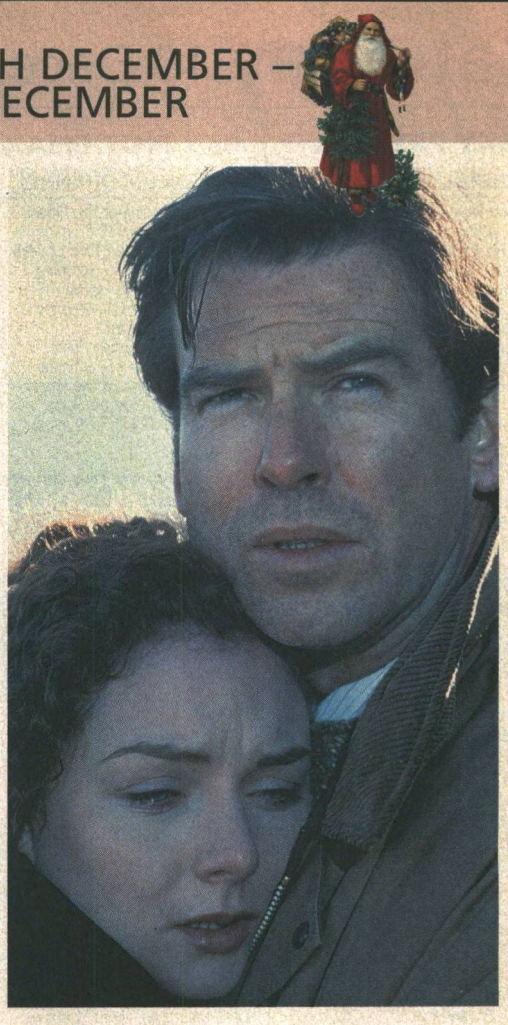
TALES FROM THE HASSELBAINK

Leeds United, under new manager David O'Leary, converge on Highbury this Sunday for a clash with Arsène Wenger's Arsenal. When they are firing on all cylinders, the intensity of the Gunner's attack can daunt the most fearless of opponents, though the hungry, aggressive drive of players such as Frenchman Patrick Vierra can manifest itself as unruliness. The visiting side's Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink (below), meanwhile, has a habit of scoring great goals, but while the Leeds midfield benefits from the inventive manoeuvres of young Stephen MacPhail, it lacks any real dramatic momentum. That said, O'Leary has summoned a solid sense of team spirit from Leeds that can only help their performance; they boast a deep defence that battles bravely and Nigel Martyn guards the goal mouth with the sort of keeping that could scupper even the most well-mounted Arsenal advance.

Sky Sports 1 Sunday 20th 3.00pm – LIVE



IRISH HEARTS

New 007 Pierce Brosnan trades the mega-budget special effects showcases of the Bond films and the volcano disaster movie Dante's Peak (which erupts onto Sky Premier screens this month) for the quieter, understated tone of the small-scale Irish drama The Nephew. The simple story and robust settings encourage the film's earthy, enjoyably unaffected performances as Tony Egan (Donal McCann), a farmer in a small Irish village, receives news that his sister has died in America; the arrival of her mixed-race son soon stirs up old animosities between Egan and pub landlord Joe Brady (Brosnan). The suavely handsome Irish-born Brosnan, who co-produced the film, flexes his acting muscles in a far less glamorous role than his fans are used to and gives a good account of himself alongside a solid supporting cast led by McCann and Sinéad Cusack, who last clocked in together in Bernardo Bertolucci's Stealing Beauty. The warmly observed script is serviced by a rousing, folk-flavoured score and evocative cinematography that celebrates the Irish landscape.

● The Nephew is playing as part of a Sky Movies Exclusives weekend along with Infinity, A Murder of Crows, Gargantua, Diana & Me, and Sweeney Todd.

Sky Premier Saturday 12th 8.00pm

I DREAM OF GENIE

Aladdin and the King of Thieves, the final animated entry in Disney's vibrantly enjoyable Aladdin trilogy, benefits enormously from the vocal gymnastics of Robin Williams, who makes a welcome return as the Genie – the character he voiced with such rib-tickling results in the first film. Aladdin and his sweetheart, Jasmine, have decided to marry, but with the Genie organising the royal wedding and the Forty Thieves planning to use the celebrations as a cover for a robbing spree, you know the couple will not be allowed to enjoy wedded bliss until the end credits loom.

KNIGHT TIME

'HE WAS brought across in 1228, preyed on humans and blood. Now he wants to be mortal again ...' The return of Forever Knight, currently showing on Sky One, is well-timed, considering the current interest in vampires, with Blade scaring audiences in the cinemas.

Nick Knight (Geraint Wyn Davies) was a knight in the Middle Ages who became disillusioned with the Crusades, lost faith in what he was doing and also in his God. He met a beautiful woman, Janette, who promised him an eternity free of moral obligations, full of the joys of total freedom. She took him to her master, LaCroix, who 'brought him across' and made him a vampire.

Eventually, for reasons that become clear as the series goes on, the crusading spirit began to revive within Nick, and he turned his back on his vampire ways. Now he desperately wants to regain his mortality and works the night shift as a homicide detective in modern-day Toronto in an attempt to pay penance for his crimes.

Drinking cow blood rather than human, he works with coroner Dr Natalie Lambert trying to lose his vampirism. Unfortunately, LaCroix (Nigel Bennett) regards Nick as the son he never had, and wants to show him the error of his ways. He follows Nick to Toronto and turns up in his life at intervals to try to tempt him back to the old ways. LaCroix finds work as a night disc jockey at a local radio station, from where he lectures Nick on his 'responsibilities'.

Like Highlander, part of the charm of Forever Knight is the frequent use of flashback sequences, showing parts of Nick's life when he was still a vampire. These can be from any period of history, and we see Nick watching Joan of Arc's martyrdom, or find him trapped in Berlin during the cold war.

Forever Knight is also unusual in that all its questions, and Nick's search for mortality, are dealt with in its final episode, Last Knight, in a way that will definitely shock viewers who follow this enjoyable show ...

BUCK ROGERS

1979-1981, 37 episodes

Starring: Gil Gerard (Buck Rogers) Erin Gray (Colonel Wilma Deering) Tim O'Connor (Dr Elias Huer), Jay Garner (Admiral Ifram Asimov) Wilfrid Hyde-White (Dr Goodfellow)

The year is 1987 and Captain William 'Buck' Rogers is sent off in NASA's last deep space mission. Unfortunately, his craft, Ranger 3, falls into a timewarp, and Buck Rogers returns to Earth 500 years later ... Buck Rogers in the 25th Century was another space series from Glen A Larson, who was responsible for Battlestar Galactica. Gil Gerard starred as loveable Buck, a man who quickly fits into the 25th Century, alongside Erin Gray's Wilma Deering defending Earth from the evils of the Draconian Empire. Assisted by robot Twiki, voiced most of the time by Mel 'Bugs Bunny' Blanc, Buck was joined by a number of major guest stars, including the original Buck Rogers, Buster Crabbe, as well as Jack Palance and Peter Graves. A short second season followed Buck, Wilma and Twiki in a poor rip-off of Star Trek, notable only for Thom Christopher's performance as Hawk.

Don't go into the red this Christmas

Go into the yellow with £1,000 Direct Cash.

Up to £1,000 at your disposal

"Welcome to Direct Cash from Cofidis, a flexible and affordable facility which provides a personal 'cash reserve' for you to draw on as and when you need some extra money. Call us free on 0800 038 0123."

Jennifer Connors, Customer Services Manager, Cofidis

Use your cash reserve for anything at anytime

Being in the yellow with Cofidis gives you new spending power. And how you spend your £1,000 cash reserve is entirely up to you. It may be to cover an unexpected expense or to pick up a bargain in the sales. But whatever the money is for, a simple call to our helpful customer services team will see the amount you need transferred directly to your bank account, without fuss or delay.

Your cash reserve is topped-up as you repay

As a Direct Cash customer you don't pay a penny until you start to use your cash reserve, with interest payable only on the amount used. And as you top-up your reserve that money becomes available for use again, so you won't have the inconvenience of having to re-apply, as with most loans.

Affordable monthly payments at a competitive rate

A minimum £50 monthly repayment (5% of credit limit at 19.5% APR) allows you to spread the cost over a period that suits you and may include payment protection. You can also choose to make extra repayments at any time, without penalty. And at the end of every month, we issue a detailed statement to give you an up-to date balance on your cash reserve

How Direct Cash works (APR 19.5%)

Amount used	Nothing	£200	£400	£600	£800	£1,000
Cash reserve still available	£1,000	£800	£600	£400	£200	£0
Min. Monthly repayment	Nothing	£50	£50	£50	£50	£50
Total repayment	Nothing	£208	£429	£667	£922	£1,198

The simple solution with no fees or charges

Because Direct Cash comes with no arrangement charges or hidden costs, you know exactly where you are. You simply pay manageable monthly repayments on the cash reserve used and nothing more. Making it the most effective and flexible way for you to control your finances and balance your budget.

It's so easy to apply

There is no unnecessary correspondence or complicated paperwork with Direct Cash. Everything about this simple and reliable facility has been designed for ease of use, and that includes how you apply. Just call today or return the coupon below and you can start to enjoy the many benefits that come from being in the yellow.

FILM
Life Is Sweet
FilmFour 8.10pm
A night featuring three movies starring English cult actor David Thewlis. The Mike Leigh-directed Life Is Sweet kicks off on a comedic note, but Leigh's Naked, which features a fine performance by Thewlis, is relentlessly downbeat. He also appears in the early Brit film Vroom.

GENERAL
Sez Les
Granada Plus 9.30pm
The late Les Dawson became one of Britain's best-loved funny men with his lugubrious expressions and gleeful delight at taking the mickey out of the proverbial mother-in-law. This series features his inimitable stand-up patter, sketches and special guests.

DISNEY CHANNEL'S GOING DOTTY!

To celebrate the premiere of Disney's One Hundred and One Dalmatians, Cable Guide and Disney Channel are giving you the chance to win a limited edition sericel of the movie. This enchanting feature tells the story of two Dalmatians, Pongo and Perdita, and their 15 loveable puppies. When their children are stolen by the evil Cruella De Vil and her sidekicks Jasper and Horace, the dogs go on a national search to find them, discovering an underground network of stolen pups on the way. Disney's One Hundred and One Dalmatians premieres on Sunday 13th, 7.00pm as part of the 101 Weekend, which also features episodes of the 101 Dalmatians series and the live action version of Disney's 101 Dalamatians. To win the sericel, answer the following question:

NAME CRUELLA DE VIL'S TWO NASTY SIDEKICKS

Ten runners up will receive fab Disney Channel goody bags! Send your entry to 101 Dalmatians Competition, Cable Guide, 172 Tottenham Court Road, London W1P 0JJ, to reach us by 31 December. The winner will be the first correct entry drawn at random after the closing date. Usual rules apply.

50 GERANIUMS FOR JUST £9.95 INCLUDING DELIVERY

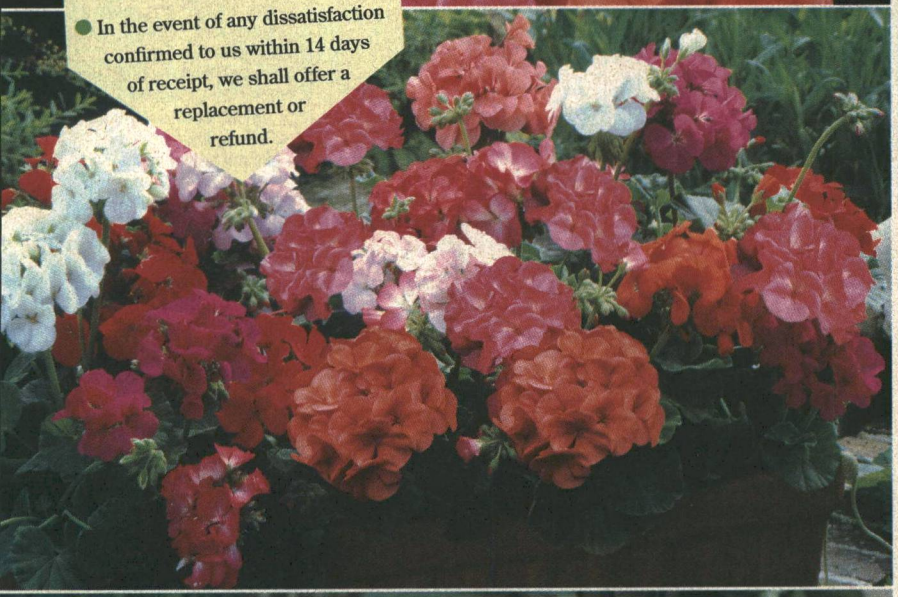
PLUS 10 EXTRA FREE

First class garden favourites for less than 17p each

All plants will measure approx. 6-8cm ready for transplanting and growing on.

YOUR ASSURANCE OF QUALITY

- All our plants are F1 hybrids and grown to the highest quality specification.
- Your order will be carefully packed in a protective box and despatched by First Class Post for delivery to any UK address.
- All plants are accompanied by easy-to-follow growing instructions.
- In the event of any dissatisfaction confirmed to us within 14 days of receipt, we shall offer a replacement or refund.



Order either red or mixed collections or both

Our special 'Plan early for next Spring offer' means that when you order 50 Harlequin Geraniums for just £9.95, we'll give you an extra 10 plants of the same super quality absolutely FREE! An early flowering variety, Harlequin Geraniums produce a large number of blooms per plant throughout summer until the first frosts.

Choose Harlequin Mixed – coral, pink, white, red, rose, scarlet, light and deep salmon shades; or the all Red (deep scarlet) collection – traditional vivid red blooms.

Quality plants grown to order

The plants are all F1 varieties and carefully grown in controlled greenhouse conditions to the highest standard, packed in a protective box and despatched by first class post.

On arrival, they will measure approximately 6–8cm from stem tip to plant base and are supplied with full horticultural instructions. As the plants are grown to order, despatch will be from mid-March onwards and all orders will be acknowledged. Just grow them on for a few weeks before planting outside when the danger of frost has passed.

TELL US A STORY ...

You really know you've made it in the music world when Hollywood makes a movie of your life. This month, VH1 premieres biopics of two music giants. Kurt Russell stars as The King in Elvis: The Movie (Boxing Day, 10.00pm), and The Birth of The Beatles (Christmas Day, 10.00pm) charts the band's early days in The Cavern to their first performance on US TV. Here are Loud's top five favourite music biopics:

AMADEUS (1984) (below, bottom right) Full of great music, drama and wit, the film tells the story of the genius Mozart and the spittingly jealous court composer Antonio Salieri.

BACKBEAT (1993) The famous four that made up the Beatles were originally five. As the pre-fame Beatles head for Hamburg, the fifth one, Stuart Sutcliffe, has to choose between music and love. The latter wins.

SID AND NANCY 1986 (below left) Follows the love affair between Sex Pistol Sid Vicious and his devoted groupie Nancy Spungen that ended gruesomely in The Chelsea Hotel, New York.

COAL MINER'S DAUGHTER (1980) (below, top right) Sissy Spacek plays country singer Loretta Lynn from her impoverished childhood, marriage at 13 and huge success in Country Music.

THE ROSE (1979) Bette Midler takes the lead role as a Janis Joplin-like rock singer who struggles with the temptations of sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll.

Celebrate the Eighties

Aaah, the Eighties! The style Stasi keep trying to foist fashion atrocities upon us but, thankfully, despite a brief renaissance of the pop sock, we've managed to keep the legwarmer at bay. Fashion faux pas aside, some of the music wasn't so bad: Wham!, Human League and Boy George are some of the notables. However, some of the music wasn't so good – Sigue Sigue Sputnik, Kajagoogoo and Bonnie Tyler. Bob Mills' Big 80s Weekend celebrates the good, the bad and the ugly of the decade that style almost forgot (Saturday 12th and Sunday 13th). So dig out those shoulderpads and groove on down to Duran Duran, Adam Ant, Spandau Ballet, and much more.

Here's our pick of 20 of the hottest tracks on The Box this month. To make your request, dial the number on screen, then key in the code for the video of your choice

SECTION 4 SATURDAY 26TH DECEMBER – THURSDAY 31ST DECEMBER

IF YOU GO DOWN TO THE WOODS ON BOXING DAY ...

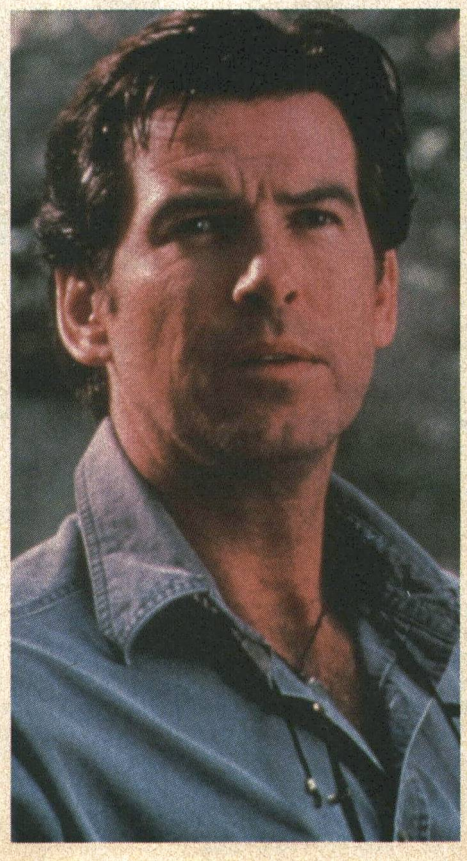
Over 20 years after Walt Disney's expert animators brought writer AA Milne's Winnie the Pooh to irrepressibly cuddly life, the adorable 'silly old bear' and all his friends – Tigger, Piglet, Eeyore, Rabit and Owl – are reunited in Winnie the Pooh's Most Grand Adventure. An exuberant delight that's buoyed up by a selection of original songs, this British television premiere finds Pooh and his pals imagining that Pooh's human companion Christopher Robin is trapped in a cave. They embark on an incident-packed journey into the depths of Hundred Acre Wood to rescue him.

Disney Channel Boxing Day 1.00pm

SNOW LIMITS

Even if you haven't enjoyed a white Christmas, you're still guaranteed plenty of dramatic snow business at the women's World Cup skiing events in Austria. This week, there's thrilling alpine action with the top giant slalom specialists, who weave their way through a challenging course at the popular Semmering resort. Among the favourites is Switzerland's 22-year-old Karin Roten (above), who is growing more confident with each competition.

Eurosport Sunday 27th 9.00am – LIVE



THE LOOK OF LAVA

The first of last year's two volcano movies to scorch the nation's cinema screens (the other was the bluntly titled Volcano), Dante's Peak stars Pierce Brosnan as a volcanologist who warns the inhabitants of the town of the title that the long-dormant peak that looms above them is in danger of erupting, causing immense destruction. He is ignored by all but the town mayor (Linda Hamilton from the Terminator movies), but his predictions come terrifyingly true. Director Roger Donaldson perfected the art of generating pulse-pounding suspense in the Kevin Costner conspiracy thriller No Way Out and proved that he was also adept at conjuring effective shocks in the creature feature Species, so there was never any doubt that the many race-against-time action sequences in Dante's Peak would be executed with great skill. But what may surprise those viewers familiar with the Seventies disaster movies that inspired Dante's Peak is the care with which the characters are drawn. Donaldson concentrates on establishing an identifiable set of protagonists; he keeps a shrewd eye on the dramatic progress of the story, even during the horrifying scenes of devastation, and the film is all the more affecting for it.

FOUR YOUR LOVE

I WOULD like to express my appreciation for the recently launched FilmFour. As its advertising states, FilmFour is a totally different movie channel. It boldly goes where no other film channel has gone before, giving us films that would otherwise never be shown on TV. I must convey my gratitude to FilmFour for launching a channel that can only be described as the best thing to happen to cable.

LOVE LETTERMAN

I WOULD like to thank the Paramount Comedy Channel for showing The Late Show with David Letterman. On a recent trip to New York I was fortunate enough to meet David Letterman in person and was part of his show. I realised from this first-hand experience how much effort goes into his show and it's great that the channel is once again airing it. What would late night TV be without Dave?

Kirsty Dziennik

SPORTING HEROES

CABLE TV boasts superb world-wide sports coverage. The sports channels provide me with endless entertainment all year round. The coverage of Premier League football is great and the loyalty to the lower leagues is commendable. I also enjoy coverage of both rugby league and rugby union, and international cricket. But I am particularly pleased with the coverage of the World Wrestling Federation. Any WWF fan would agree with me when I say that WWF – Raw is the most entertaining Friday night show ever. Together with the other WWF weekly shows, and the live coverage of main events, I think that cable makes for superb sports entertainment. Keep it up!

EVANS ABOVE

I COULD not believe my eyes when I sat down to watch my favourite show, *M*A*S*H*, and found out that Chris Evans's pointless televised radio show was on instead. I have two points to make. Firstly, why do viewers want to watch people playing records when they could simply listen to the radio? Secondly, why bother to repeat a breakfast radio show that was recorded live? Where's the fun in that?

Kevin Emre
New Malden

FINGER LICKIN' BAD

I WATCH Ready, Steady, Cook on Living regularly, and I notice that many of the chefs lick their fingers and then put them into the food and expect people to eat it afterwards. It's appalling and very unhygenic. I also think the cooks should be made to keep their hair covered – I hate to see their hair hanging down.

OUR ENJOYMENT IS AT STAKE

WE receive the Sky Sports channels on our oil platform and on Monday evenings when football is on we run a sweepstake in which the times of the first and last goals come into account. As you can imagine, the on-screen clock comes in very handy. So why is it that as soon as a goal is scored, the channel removes the clock straight away? We find it very difficult to watch the game and the clock at the same time. Wouldn't it be better if they could keep the clock on screen after the goal was scored?

THE BIG PICTURE?

HOW can Sky Premier, MovieMax and Cinema call themselves movie channels when most of the films they show are in the full-screen format? It ruins everything, the quality of the image and the work of the director. Just watch the widescreen and the full-screen versions of any movie – it's like watching two different films! Sky should programme at least one widescreen version of all its films so the people who really love cinema won't be as disappointed as I am now.

A reader commends Sky One's 'Sarah ... Surviving Life' for being both 'hard-hitting' and humbling

SUNDAY NIGHT FEVER

THANK you to Sky One for their excellent Sunday evening line-up. I love the double bill of The Simpsons, and I think that Prickly Heat and British Sex are brilliant. As long as Sky keeps up this great entertainment my Sunday evenings will never be dull again!

Melanie McGraith
Preston

GOODFELLAS

I AM a massive fan of the great Hollywood actors Al Pacino and Robert De Niro. I love it when Sky's movie channels show seasons of films featuring the same actors, and was wondering if Sky would consider showing the complete Godfather saga – instead of showing The Godfather Part III all the time – as part of a movie special weekend. I would love to see more films featuring Pacino and De Niro in the future.

Leanne Millar
Fife

● Sky replies: 'We're afraid there are no plans to play the first two instalments in the Godfather saga, Leanne. There are no plans as yet to run a Robert De Niro-Al Pacino weekend, either. But perhaps you could create your own unofficial season in December, as Al Pacino can be seen in Cruising on Sky Cinema and Donnie Brasco over on Sky Premier, while Robert De Niro stars in Marvin's Room, which makes its debut on Sky Premier, and also We're No Angels on Sky MovieMax.'

QUE SARAH, SARAH

CONGRATULATIONS to Sky One on their brand new and excellent programme Sarah ... Surviving Life. It is one of the most brilliant shows I have seen in a long time on any channel. Having experienced an accident through which I was temporarily concussed, it has taken me the last year to try and get over it. Some of the stories covered on the programme are hard-hitting and have made me realise that my own experience was nothing compared to theirs.

Mr A Rossiter

● Congratulations, Mr Rossiter, you've won our £5 prize for best letter.

TOO MANY ADS

I ENJOY watching Star Trek, The Simpsons and Sliders on Sky One, but I am annoyed by the constant commercial breaks. They ruin the atmosphere and, as many of them are over five minutes long, it is often easy to forget what happened just before the break. Sky should shorten the time given over to adverts during programmes, then show the extra adverts after that programme.

Thomas Kohler (aged 13)

GOLDEN OLDIE

I AM delighted with UK Gold. All the old programmes still provide a good laugh and I can't get enough of Open All Hours. It always cheers me up.

Hetty Tenser

SKY'S THE LIMIT

SKY is obsessed with repeating the same series – namely The Simpsons, Friends and The X-Files. As if this isn't bad enough, one of the few new series, The Pretender, has been taken off to make way for repeats of Earth: Final Conflict.
